Dedicated in Memory
of

Beatrice N. Booth

1926 - 1993

Beatrice N. Booth was the wife of Alex L. Booth, Jr. and the mother of Carolyn Sue (Mrs. Larry Whitley) school teacher in Smithfield, NC; Daniel Houston, medical doctor in Cape Coral, FL); Ellen Gayle (Mrs. Tom Cole) homemaker in Falls Church, VA; Forest Allen, chemical engineer in Kingsport, TN; and Gary Lee, furniture manufacture engineer in North Wilkesboro, NC. She was born the daughter of the late Donald Thompson and Nellie Philips Thompson of Pineola, North Carolina, on November 5, 1926.

Educated in the public schools of Avery County, North Carolina, King College in Bristol, Virginia, Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute, she completed graduate courses at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary and North Carolina State University. She taught school in Grundy County, Virginia, before her first child was born. Until her last child began public school, she was a full time homemaker and pastor's wife. In 1965 she became librarian at Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute, where she served until her death.

She was dedicated to church life from her childhood. Of the many positions she held through the years at Fruitland Baptist Church, she is best remembered for directing the adult choir for many years. Until cancer was discovered, Mrs. Booth had a remarkable stamina and health. Perhaps her most remarkable trait was a keen interest in people which accounts for a notable memory for names, faces and relationships of practically everyone she ever met.

Beatrice N. (Thompson) Booth died on April 15, 1993, after more than a year's bout with ovarian cancer during which she continued her vocation and avocation activity until the day of her final hospitalization. While she supported and participated in Carolina Baptist Association in many ways, her main contribution was as director of Vacation Bible School, the position she held for several years. She also spent much time working on committees where her major task was enlisting people to fill positions in the Carolina Baptist Associational structure.

Dedicated in Honor
Paula Janes

Paula G. Janes was born in Memphis, Tennessee on January 7, 1964. She accepted Christ as her Savior and was baptized into Victoria Heights Baptist Church in Victoria, Mississippi when she was 11 years old. She is married to Terry G. Janes, and they have two daughters; Heather Lynn, age nine and Michelle Leigh, age four. They moved to Hendersonville in November of 1986 on faith after much prayer over the decision, because neither of them had a job in the area. The Lord has blessed this decision with abundance. Since Paula's move in 1986, her parents, grandparents and two brothers have moved to this area.

In 1987 the family became a part of Ebenezer Baptist Church. Paula has been active in Baptist Young Women with a deep concern for WMU work in all the churches. She is convinced that God has called women to pray and work in missions of all types. Since 1987, she has also worked in Vacation Bible School, Children's Church and the Nursery.

In May of 1987, Paula became Financial Secretary for Carolina Baptist Association. She is certain that God led her to this position. She is deeply dedicated and highly motivated in the work she loves. She is a pleasant help to all who come to the resource center with requests. Her prayer is that God's love will show through her to each person she meets. She says, "God created us to love and care for each other, so it should be our goal to love each other as He loves us, and everything else will follow."

PROCEEDINGS MONDAY OCTOBER 25, 1993

6:50 P.M. Oak Forest Baptist Church
Theme: Cooperation without Compromise
Moderator Bobbie Arrowood, Presiding

1. Music Director Beverly Smith led a joyful time of praise with Kenny Corn at the piano using There's Something About that Name, His Name is Wonderful, Holy Holy Holy, and Alleluia. The congregation then sang Happy Birthday to Director of Missions Alex Booth.

2. Moderator Bobbie Arrowood declared the 116th Annual Meeting in session.

3. Host Pastor Paul Chandler welcomed the messengers and friends. He led the devotional using Romans 12:1-2, and led the invocation.

4. The Ministry Testimony was given by Bill Clevenger, Blue Ridge Prison Ministry Chaplain emphasizing the importance of helping inmates become reconciled to their families, their communities and their God.

5. The printed program was adopted.

6. Clerk Lucy Sitton reported the registration of 122 messengers and 43 visitors for a total of 165. Registrars from Oak Forest Baptist Church were Doris Baldwin, Esther Chandler, Beverly Hendricks, Claudia McMinn and Mrs. Roy Moritz.

7. Director of Missions Alex Booth recognized new pastors and staff members: C. Burrell Jones (Mount Olivet pastor), Charles Magnet (West Hendersonville pastor), Wilburn Lefler (Brightwater pastor), Brent Dowis (Bat Cave pastor), Kenny Corn (Valley Hill pastor), Roy Waldroup (Fletcher First pastor).

8. Greg Mathis, pastor of Mud Creek Baptist Church and member of the State Convention General Board, presented plans for a special evangelistic effort in 1995 led by the North Carolina Baptist State Convention Department of Evangelism called Here's Hope - Share Jesus Now.

9. Music Director Beverly Smith led the congregation in the hymn Great is Thy Faithfulness.

BUSINESS

10. Chair of the Committee on Nominations presented the printed report. There were no additional nominations. The report was adopted.

11. Chair of the Committee on Finance Bruce McIntyre presented the proposed budget for 1994. He noted progress since 1990 with 3% to 5% increase each year. He explained the budget process and pointed out items that needed special attention.

The Executive Committee had approved an associational counseling ministry without designating funding sources. The Committee included the item with a one-time funding from anticipated surplus money in 1993. He explained that counselees would be charged according to their ability to pay. The hope is that the counseling ministry may become self supporting.

The Council Discretionary Fund line item proposed by the Committee provides for emergency nonbudgeted needs which need to be met before a meeting of the Committee on Finance could approve it.

The Committee recommended that any funds not needed in a given year for Building and Grounds Maintenance be rolled over for major maintenance projects which aging facilities will need soon.

He noted for the record that the line item for Temporary Work provides only for office staff vacation and sick leave time, and moved the adoption of the budget. There were no questions or discussion. The budget was adopted.

12. The Committee on Place and Preacher was given by Chair Harold McKinnish. An invitation for the April meeting came from Fletcher First Baptist Church, and one for the October meeting came from Crab Creek Baptist Church. Steve Scoggins, pastor of Hendersonville First, was recommended as preacher for the annual sermon with Guy Smith, pastor of Crab Creek as alternate. The report was adopted.

13. The report of the Committee on Constitution was given by chair Margaret King. She pointed out the changes and correction. Paul Chandler called attention to an additional correction in Article XI where the words Nominating Committee needed to be changed to Committee on Committees.

It was announced that the revision, changes and corrections would be presented for vote at the Tuesday evening session.

14. Chair Sandy Campbell reported for the Committee on Language Ministries. She spoke highly of the new pastor Alfredo Oviedo of Mision Bautista Hispana "Carolina" and promised that he would be presented to the Association on Tuesday evening. He was taking a course at UNCA Monday evening. She also reported that Vicente Zepeda, member of the mission, continues to work with the mission in Mexico in the construction of a new building. She closed the report with an appeal for help in purchasing a commercial vacuum cleaner for Mision Bautista.

15. The report for the Committee on Migrant Work was given by Co-Chair Peggy Laughter. She expressed appreciation for the abundance of food kits, health kits and blankets provided by Carolina, Buncombe and Transylvania Associations and Henrietta Baptist Church in Sandy Run Baptist Association. These were distributed to Migrant workers beginning in May. East Flat Rock First Baptist Church and Hendersonville First Baptist Church hosted meetings the first Sunday in August. Special services were held at MisionBautista, Bon Clarken Conference Center and at Jackson Park. She pleaded for two or more new members to work with the Committee on Migrant Work.

16. When all business items were completed, Bill Morrow, representing the Baptist Children's Homes, asked for time to present his report since he could not attend at the allotted time on Tuesday. He encourage full use of mailed materials for the annual Thanksgiving Offering with a goal of $600,000. He invited messengers to visit homes.

WORSHIP

17. Music Director Beverly Smith led the congregation in singing O How I Love Jesus. Graylon Jordan, pastor of Dana Baptist Church, read Psalm 126:5-6 and introduced Tommy Martin, pastor of Mountain View Baptist Church to preach the annual sermon. He recognized Nancy Martin, Tommy's wife of thirty-four years, and praised her for her work at Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute.

19. Special Music was presented by Ms. Donna Parton, secretary for Haywood Baptist Association, who had been invited by James Newman who had served with Donna on several mission causes. She sang Gone and Lift Up the Name of Jesus.

20. The Rev. Mr. Tommy Martin preached the Annual Sermon on the text from Proverbs 23:26 *My Son, Give Me Thine Heart.*He related the message to the annual theme Cooperation Without Compromise. He pointed out that giving one's heart to the Heavenly Father must be done daily. He challenged messengers to give their whole hearts in evangelism and ministry. The result of giving the whole heart is love motivated actions and relationships.

21. The closing prayer was led by Charles Magnet.

PROCEEDINGS TUESDAY OCTOBER 26, 1993

4:00 P.M. Etowah Baptist Church
Theme: Cooperation without Compromise
Vice Moderator Zeke Crawford, Presiding

1. Music Director Beverly Smith led the congregation in Praise Him, Praise Him, accompanied by Georgina Bratu.

2. Host Pastor David Hyde welcomed the messengers and friends. Using Matthew 28:1-6, he led the devotional on The Empty Tomb.

3. The Ministry Testimony was given by Bill Valentine, Director of Ministry Seven. He used Luke 4:18-19 to speak on Ministry to the Poor. He reported that the mission had 702 residents in the past twelve months and served 31,000 meals to the hungry. He made a plea for help in manual and spiritual ministry to meet a growing need. He offered to visit churches on Sunday and Wednesday evening and present a video program on Ministry Seven. He encouraged people to visit the mission at their convenience.

4. Vice Moderator Zeke Crawford declared afternoon session in order.

5. Bobbie Arrowood presented the Executive Committee Report, and it was adopted.

6. Moderator Bobbie Arrowood presided while Vice Moderator Zeke Crawford brought a recommendation from the Personnel Committee that Fred Trachsel be employed as part-time counselor for the Carolina Baptist Association Counseling Ministry. The recommendation was accepted without descent. Mr. Crawford introduced Mr. Trachsel who asked for prayer support.

7. Greg Mathis had given the General Board Report on Monday.

8. Chair Audrey Saunders presented the Committee on Committees Report. She noted the following additions and corrections to the report: Add Mark Hunnicut under Youth Enrichment and Doris McGee under Senior Adult Enrichment. Replace the names of Bobbie Arrowood and Zeke Crawford, who serve by virtue of their offices, under Committee on Finance with the name of Al Worley and Bruce McIntyre. There were no nominations from the floor and the report was adopted.

9. Mervin Garrison presented the Mission Ministries Report. He brought attention to the following mission ministries: Eleven church participated in mission trips (aid to victims of hurricane Andrew in South Florida [$8,000 was sent by the Association through the Baptist State Convention and 7 tons of emergency supplies were collected at the Baptist Resource Center and sent by Johnson Farms] and the Mississippi flood area - church construction in Texas - Bible School work in New York and Wisconsin, and 14,000 copies of the Bible we delivered and distributed in Russia by a team of seven led by Michael Smith.

He announced distribution of funds from the Frank Neville Memorial Fund to the following mission causes: $1,000 through Ebenezer Baptist Church to help Glen Cotton move to North Pole, Alaska where he is serving as volunteer assistant pastor - $1,000 through Mud Creek Baptist Church to help support a volunteer working with Crusade for Christ for a year in Turkey - and $1,600 through Mision Bautista to help the pastor with continuing education costs. He explained that a special fund for scholarship to Caraway and Munda Vista is included in the Frank Neville Memorial Fund that churches can secure for youth members who cannot afford the full cost.

He reported that Convention approval of plans for the Associational World Missions Conference have been approved for the first week in October of 1994.

Audrey Saunders presented the New Work Report noting that two churches, Mud Creek and Hendersonville First, were involved in a program of outreach stations in cooperation with the North Carolina Baptist State Convention Missions Division.

Alfredo Oviedo reported on Mision Bautista work where he is concentrating on training leadership in Seminary Extension credited courses.

The Mission Ministries Report was adopted.

10. The Church Development Report was presented by Michael Smith, who began by expressing gratitude to the Association for supporting the To Russia With Love mission trip. He then called attention to the printed report and urged church leaders to call upon associational resource persons for church development.

Hazel Duncan announced that Faith Searcy would replace her as Director of Media.

The Church Development Report was adopted.

11. Mark Hunnicut, interim Minister of Youth at Ebenezer Baptist Church, spoke to the Youth Enrichment Report. He suggested that future heros of the faith are now troublesome teenagers on the back pews of churches. He pointed out that most adult Christians were saved during their teen years. He called for prayer as he seeks to work with Youth Enrichment.

12. Music Director Beverly Smith led the congregation in singing There is a Fountain.

13. Margaret King presented the History Report. She pleaded with clerks to be sure historical events were reported in the annual Uniform Church Letters. She called attention to several items she had gathered from the Associational Newsletter, and emphasized the note burning ceremony at the Executive Committee meeting January 19, 1993.

The report was adopted.

14. Associational Clerk Lucy Sitton recognized church clerks and read the names of thirty-six who had qualified for the honor roll by getting Uniform Church Letters completed and in the BRC office on time. The report was adopted.

15. Visiting Denominational Agency Representatives were recognized: Linda Blankenship (Baptist Retirement Homes), Bob Lamb (Gardner-Webb University), Corbin Carpenter (Baptist Hospital), Sue Fitzgerald (Mars Hill College) and Mack Roberts (Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute).

16. Cecil Young, of Etowah Baptist Church explained the process for the evening meal and led the benediction and blessing prayer.

18. The 116th Annual Session of Carolina Baptist Association was adjourned.

HISTORY

Margaret King, Historian

The work of the historian is unique. Having recorded history makes us aware of what God has done which encourages our praise of Him. A church history helps us to appreciate heritage.

The Carolina Baptist Newsletter features a different church history each month. The responses greatly encouraged the historian. In the past two years' twenty-four of the fifty-six churches have been highlighted in "Historical Highlights."

The ongoing goal is every church keeping a written history and updated!

Now is a good time to have church records preserved on microfilm permanently. Seventeen churches in Carolina Association have microfilmed histories. Contact me if I can assist you (692-4565).

Praise God for all He has done and will do for us. Psalm 105:5

CHURCH DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

Michael Smith, Counselor

Some churches do not have adequate resources for training and undergirding the ministry of the local congregation. Carolina Baptist Association has developed leadership available to help the local churches in the areas of Sunday School, Woman's Missionary Union, Brotherhood, Discipleship Training, Media, Music and Seminary Extension. The Church Development Council coordinates the work by providing training and experience that can be shared with the churches. The churches of Carolina Baptist Association are encouraged to use these valuable resources in strengthening ministries for Christ.

BROTHERHOOD by James Newman
April 23-24: Disaster Relief training at Caraway Conference Center.
May 10-11: Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest.
July 13: Regional Planning Meeting at the Buncombe Baptist Resource Center.
February 27- March 4: Hurricane Andrew Relief in South Miami.
August 3 - 10: Flood Relief in Hardin, Illinois.
Goals for the new year are to help increase effectiveness of Brotherhood work in the churches.

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING by Bob Dutton
Matthew 28 admonishes to make disciples as we go into the world. Jesus trained the twelve who walked with Him for three years. Paul says we are to prepare the saints for the work of ministry so that the body of Christ may be built up. Are you preparing the saints for the work of ministry? This is what Discipleship Training is all about.
- Experiencing God: Knowing and Doing the Will of God trains for a love relationship with God.
- Disciple's PrayerLife challenges individuals to agree with God and to use His name in prayer.
- Life Support Series and Making Peace with your Past,
New titles this year include Search for Significance and Conquering Codependency are great training resources to help people grow up in dysfunctional families and develop, with God's help, a sense of worth.
The Discipleship Training Director offers to help you prepare for ministry to the world.

MEDIA SERVICES by Hazel M. Duncan

Fort Caswell by the sea! Let your imagination carry you to this historic site. As you look at the point where the Cape Fear River merges with the Atlantic Ocean you will see two sentinels of the sea - Cape Fear Lighthouse and Bald Head Island Lighthouse. The Conference Center is located on the site of the original Fort Caswell built a century and a half ago for protection for the waterways that were navigable as far as Fayetteville. Waterways' transportation was very important to the early settlers, but this also made it a prime target for enemy attack. The Cape Fear River became the most completely fortified river on the Atlantic Coast with Fort Caswell at its mouth. Remnants of this old fort can still be seen but the spirit of Fort Caswell cannot be described it must be experienced.

Fort Caswell was an active military reservation from the time of the War Between the States to World War II. This fort and others became of less importance with the use of airplanes and more modern defense weapons. And today Caswell Conference Center stands on this historic site.

This was the spirit, scenes and sounds that greeted Faith Searcy and Hazel Duncan at the 1993 State Media Library Conference. Along with hundreds of other enthusiastic directors and staff, they thoroughly enjoyed a trip back into time and forward into today. Hazel led the conference on Oral and Written Promotion. Both attended conferences ranging from Classification to Book Repair and a lot in between. Thank you for allowing them to be a part of this inspiring, challenging experience. If anyone has the opportunity to attend a conference at Caswell, be sure to take advantage of it.

Two associational workshops were held during 1992-93. The first in November featured a video by Danny Ayala, Field Services Consultant of the Church Media Library Department, Nashville, entitled Basics of Promotion. In April Mildred Thomas, Media specialist, Buncombe Baptist Association, conducted a conference on classification and promotion. Promotion through the newsletter and printed meidagraphies, and circulation of video tapes and other resources has been the main emphasis of the Carolina Media Library Organization this year. The director also attended the Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest.

Faith Searcy, associate director, has agreed to serve as the new Director of Associational Media Library Services. Her enthusiasm, knowledge and dedication will be a great asset to the Media Services program of the association. She plans to contact each church Media Library director and offer resources and encouragement. Ellazene Corn will be the associate director and Hazel Duncan the secretary and associational librarian.

FAMILY LIFE COUNCIL

Fred Trachsel, Counselor

It has been a pure privilege to work with chairpersons Doris McGee, Senior Enrichment; Terry Silvers, Single Enrichment; Kay Garrison, Family Enrichment; and Linda Bradley, Youth Enrichment. Activities this year include:

- led two different conferences at Ridgecrest for the Baptist Sunday School Board in Nashville (Family Ministry Department.)
- attended the Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest sponsored by the Baptist State Convention
- met with the four chairpersons in our Family Life Council for planning and discussion
- wrote about eleven articles for the Associational News Letter under the heading "Family Life Korner" and "Family Life Lines"
- Mark Hunnicutt has been nominated as chair of youth enrichment. Linda Bradley has done superb work in this place over the years.
- chosen to speak at a weekend conference in Goldsboro, NC, sponsored by our State Convention on "Blending Families."

Please call upon Family Life leaders for help in the churches. Whether you are single or married, as Edgar Guest said, "It takes a heap of living to make a house a home!"

FAMILY ENRICHMENT by Kay Garrison

With so many changes in the area of Family Life today, sound biblical instruction is imperative in the area of family. Every family needs encouragement and support. The Family Enrichment Committee recommends that each church have a Family Life Ministry Committee or a person designated to plan events and keep family matters before the people. Some excellent resources on family life are available in the Media Library Resource Center at the Carolina Baptist Resource Building.

Suggestions for events to highlight Family Life in churches during the coming year are welcome. Carolina Baptist News can publish helpful information for family enrichment. Please call for help.

SENIOR ADULT ENRICHMENT by Doris McGee

Associational Senior Adults met November 4 (a stormy day) at Balfour Baptist Church. Eighty-six from fourteen churches were present for the Christmas program presented by Duke Power Company. In April the meeting was at Tuxedo First Baptist Church. One hundred thirteen were present from sixteen churches. A sing-along led by Joy Singers, the Senior Adult Choir led by Don Hutchens. All are welcome to join this group.

September 1 the meeting at Main Street Baptist Church featured Mr. Edwin Coates, from the NC Baptist Foundation, who spoke concerning wills and trusts. This year senior adults gave $280 for Russian Bibles.

SINGLE ENRICHMENT by Terry Silvers

- Friday Freedom is a regular weekly Bible study for single adults at the Baptist Resource Center.
- The 3rd. Annual Carolina Baptist Association "Winterfest" for single adults is planned for January 14-17, 1994. Godly men like Jim Pearce and Craig Watkins volunteered their time to lead conferences at earlier Winterfests.
- New Year's Eve Christmas Music Concert.
- message and music to the singles at Ebenezer Baptist Church. This type of ministry is designed to help the churches develop single adult ministries of their own.

YOUTH ENRICHMENT by Linda Bradley

Mark Hunnicutt will be the new associational youth director. He is concerned for all teenagers in the Carolina Baptist Association area. Keep him and the youth in your prayers. Thank you for allowing me to serve as your youth leader in the past.

MISION BAUTISTA HISPANA "CAROLINA" by Alfredo Oviedo

The Spanish Committee began searching Pastor since the former Pastor Rudy Aguero left the Mission in July 1992. The time between Mission's leaders and members of Spanish Committee were working together to perform the regular duties and Mission's activities.

Different Pastors were invited to preach and administer ordinances regularly until December 18, 1992. After seven months of prayer and arrangements, Pastor Alfredo Oviedo came from Chicago, Illinois to Hendersonville, North Carolina as prospect Pastor for the Mission.

In May 12, 1993, he became officially the Pastor of the Mission when the Department of Immigration granted to him and his family (Alejandrina 32, Amparo 16, Miriam 13, Alfredo 11 and Ana A. 9) Lawful Permanent Visas.

Mission's average attendance on Sunday has been 100, four new members by baptism were added to the membership. Regular training classes in Bible, Christian Doctrine, and Church Administration are being taught to the leaders. The goal of future is a self-supported congregation that can continue sharing the gospel and reaching for Christ the community where the Mission located (Edneyville).

The Mission continues to supporting the Migrant Ministry of our Association working together with the FBC of Hendersonville, East Flat Rock FBC and Bonclarken Camp.

Missionary efforts of the mission still are performed by Brother Vicente Zepeda who went to Durango, Mexico in March 1993. This ministry is possible for the support of WMU FBC East Flat Rock, Hispanic Mission and individual gifts. A thousand dollars were sent in June 1993 to start the building of a new Baptist Church there in Durango, Mexico.

Our gratitude to the Lord and to many volunteers (for example John McGee and Bob Campbell) who love and work for our Savior Jesus Christ through the Spanish Mission of CBA, in special for Association's staff and the 92-93 Spanish Committee.

PASTORS COUNCIL

Zeke Crawford, Counselor

The Pastors Council meets only as a need arises. Items of interest have been brought to the regular Monday Ministers Conference. These items are normally discussed at some length and benefit all Ministers present.

Items that may have come to the Pastors Council have been handled by the Monday Ministers Conference. Therefore, we commend the Monday Ministers Conference to every Minister.

BAPTIST CHILDREN'S HOMES

by Janette Ward

Baptist Children's Homes form an important mission field. The Moody Home for girls in Franklin, the Broyhill Home in Clyde, and the Home for unwed pregnant mothers in Asheville minister to Western North Carolina children. There are five others homes, but this report concerns only Broyhill in Clyde, NC. because the writer worked there for a short time.

No other organization will use funds more wisely. You may support a child with financial contributions or by leaving money or property in your will. You are welcome to visit Broyhill and see for yourself.

Farmers give potatoes, apples and vegetables. Churches give regularly and through special offerings as the annual Thanksgiving Offering.

Food, clothing, medical care at Broyhill Home is high quality. Some children come from homes where they have been abused or neglected. Each child has a social worker on the premises. Luther Osment and Linda Morgan provide counsel for spiritual development.

Efforts are made to get the child back with his/her family when possible. If necessary the child may stay in the Broyhill facility through high school. Children may stay beyond high school if they attend Haywood Community College, located near the home. They are cared for until they are prepared to live on their own.

BAPTIST HOSPITAL

by Ellen Daniel

Founded in 1922, Baptist Hospital is a missions ministry of the Baptist churches in North Carolina to carry out a ministry of healing as taught by Jesus Christ. Baptist Hospital remains committed to its mission. The healing team consists of 5,852 employees. This year there have been 23,247 inpatient admissions. Outpatient Department, physicians' clinics, and other related departments received 490,667 patient visits.

The chaplaincy division joined health-care professionals to provide spiritual and emotional healing. Fifteen to twenty chaplains provide 52,934 ministries to patients, their families, the staff and groups.

The Pastoral Care program has added the following services: (1) train Intentional Interim pastors; (2) train church leaders; (3) provide a minister's assessment program; (4) establish a Minister's Help Line. The Pastoral Counseling Division opened a new counseling center in Wilmington bringing our total counseling centers to 11 across the state. The centers provided 16,205 counseling sessions.

The Nursing Center for ventilator-dependent patients care at Oak Summit opened in July. The 750,000 sq. ft. Emergency Department/Dietary is under construction. The new ER capacity will be 70,000 annually. The J. Paul Sticht Center on Aging and Rehabilitation will be under construction in November with plans to open January 1996.

Last year Baptists across the state gave $422,000 to the annual Mother's Day Offering which is used to relieve the financial burden of patients with little financial means to pay their hospital bills.

BAPTIST RETIREMENT HOMES OF NC

by John Rymer

North Carolina is fast becoming a state for Senior Citizens. By the year 2010 one out of two people living in North Carolina will be fifty (50) years of age or older.

The Convention has opened the Rickman Nursing Care Center in Asheville (100 bed Medicaid certified state-of-the-art long-term nursing care facility). The Albemarle Baptist Home has been renovated and renamed The Taylor House. At Winston-Salem, the Brookridge Health Care Center, has developed a new addition to care for residents suffering from dementia.

Without the support of North Carolina Baptists none of the above would have been possible. Gifts to this ministry through the Cooperative Program are essential to the ongoing work of the Baptist Retirement Homes.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

by Margaret LeFevers

Southern Baptists have joined over 3000 missionaries in 129 countries to share the message of Christ's love. Their travels have taken them into the heart of the world's problems - hunger, war, ignorance, ethnic strife, and hopelessness. Recorded baptisms were 251,901 with 32,797 churches, and a total membership of over 3,000,000. Missionaries have established over 1000 churches in former Communist countries. There are 261 churches in Japan, and a large church growth has been seen in Arabic countries. Financial gifts have been made for world relief and hunger. The Lottie Moon Christmas Offering reached its highest total ever. Truly, God has provided us with a proven way to reach the world for Christ.

CONSTITUTION WORK SHEETS - 1993
Carolina Baptist Association

Preamble:
We, the messengers of cooperating Baptist churches in Henderson, and parts of Buncombe and Polk Counties, North Carolina, propose to establish and maintain the principles of a district association consistent with this constitution.

Article I - NAME
The name of this body shall be "Carolina Baptist Association, Inc."

Article II - PURPOSE
To aid churches in their obedience to the Great Commission, and, seeking direction from the unchanging God in a constantly changing world, it shall be the purpose of Carolina Baptist Association, Inc. to help churches cooperate with koinonia in missions, evangelism and growth projects they cannot do alone. The Association shall be a resource center for training and equipping church workers to be more effective in performing their duties. The Association shall encourage cooperation in the denomination for the advancement of God's Kingdom.

Article III - MEMBERSHIP
Section 1. Carolina Baptist Association, Inc. shall be composed of messengers from cooperating member churches.

Section 2. The Association shall be sole judge of its membership and may receive churches, or reject churches according to its Constitution and By-Laws.

Section 3. Churches who want to join the Association may apply to the Membership Committee. Upon the committee's recommendation to the Association, a church may be received under watch-care for a period of one year during which the church shall have all the rights and privileges of membership except that members may not vote nor hold office. After a satisfactory relationship for one year, the church can be received into full membership.

Section 4. A church may withdraw from the Association by transfer of letter to another association or by an official request to have that church removed from the membership role.

Article IV - Meetings
Section 1. Carolina Baptist Association, Inc. shall meet regularly on the third Tuesday evening in April, at which meeting general officers shall be elected, and on the fourth Tuesday in October, from 3:00 P.M. through 9:00 P.M., each year.

Section 2. Special meetings may be called for specified purposes by the Moderator or the Associational Council provided that two weeks notice is given to member churches.

Dedicated in Honor of

David Hyde

David Hyde was born February 13, 1956 in Bryson City, North Carolina, the Son of the Reverend and Mrs. Jack Hyde, and was raised as a "pk" (preacher's kid), . After joining a church, David realized that he had never truly accepted Christ. He gave his heart and life to Jesus in his bedroom at the age of eleven. In high school he felt God calling him to preach. At first he feared that God could not use a person with a voice and comic personality like his, but he finally surrender to God's call and was licensed to preach when he was eighteen. David graduated from Cumberland College with a B.A. degree and from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary with a M.Div. degree. He entered the Doctor of Ministry program at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, but is currently on interrupted status because of illness.

David married Linda Marie in December 1978. They have two children; Christy Ann (10) and Michael David (9). His parents and his sister's family live in this area. In 1986, David became pastor of Etowah Baptist Church. He has just celebrated his eighth anniversary with the congregation. He says that the church has been a tremendous blessing to his family, especially in the last several months. Since June of this year, David has been battling colon cancer, which has now spread to his liver. He appreciates all of the churches and people who have been praying for him and his family.

David has served as vice-moderator and moderator of the Carolina Baptist Association and on various committees. He says, "My true love is teaching and preaching. That's when I can let my hair down (what's left of it) and share with people concerning my wonderful Lord. I must admit that I try to find different ways of telling the gospel message. In fact, one of my greatest compliments came from a lady visiting our congregation who said 'You are really different from most preachers I've heard, but I learned a lot from you message'."

Dedicated in Honor of

Lucy Gilliam Sitton

Lucy Gilliam Sitton, wife of the late Howard T. Sitton, Sr., mother of Howard T. Sitton, Jr., grandmother of Janice Sitton and Julie Sitton Williams, and great grandmother of Christopher Williams, was born in Henderson County to Roy Neely and Nannie Whiteside Gilliam April 27, 1918. She earned the Bachelor of Science degree at Georgia State College for Women (1940) and did graduate work at Western Carolina University and Mars Hill College. She retired after thirty-three years as a public school teacher in 1973. She has been active in state and national education associations during her career. She is still active in Delta Kappa Gamma Teacher's Society.

She taught at Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute for two quarters and became the bookstore manager for eight years. She serves as a volunteer in Henderson County Public Schools and in the Blue Ridge Literacy Council teaching English as a second language. She ministers to shut-ins and rest homes regularly.

Mrs. Sitton became a Christian at age eleven while a member of the Edith Grove Sunday School. Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Cady, Eleanor and Aletta Plank, and other dedicated people from Hendersonville were the leaders. She has been a member of Fruitland Baptist Church since 1940, where she has served in several capacities in Sunday School, WMU, the meals on wheels program and as church clerk for thirty-six years..

Lucy Sitton has served in the Carolina Baptist Association in various positions through the years; Agency Representatives, Nominating Committee, VBS Clinic Director, WMU Officer, and has been Associational Clerk since 1990.

Dedicated in Memory of

Manolah Sinclair

Manolah Sinclair was born in the Fruitland Community of Henderson County and was the youngest of fifteen children. Her parents were Littleton Pinkney and Maria Foulds Pittillo. After graduating from Fruitland Institute, she taught music there as a faculty member and as a private teacher.

She married her high school sweetheart, John A. Sinclair, and moved to East Flat Rock where they established a grocery and general merchandise business. Later they operated a men's clothing store in Hendersonville known as Sinclair Men's Wear until 1965.

Manolah continued to use her musical talents at East Flat Rock First Baptist Church as organist and pianist with faithfulness and dedication for fifty-four years. She also played for the West Hendersonville Male Quartet as they visited churches all over Western North Carolina singing the gospel story. For many years she served as pianist for Carolina Baptist Association as it met in quarterly and annual sessions.

Music was Manolah's life. She loved to minister in the name of the Lord through the keyboard. From 1949 until a few months before her death, she was the organist for Jackson Funeral Home.

Manolah loved the Lord, she loved her church, and she loved her music. Her influence was felt by many people. She will be sorely missed. May we seek to follow in her spirit of dedication and commitment as we serve the Lord until he comes again.

Dedicated in Memory of

Margaret Kaiser King

Margaret K. King was born August 19, 1908 in Lincoln County, North Carolina. Upon graduation from Florence Stephenson High School in Asheville, she attended Asheville Teacher's College and then earned the Bachelor of Science degree from Appalachian State University with honors. She did graduate work at Western Carolina University and the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill.

She was married to the late Clarence M. King, who spent forty years in public education as a teacher and administrator, served a term as mayor of Shelby, North Carolina and taught at Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute for nine years. The Kings had two sons and seven grandchildren.

Her teaching career was spent in elementary and middle schools in Waco, Shelby, Bowman, Bakersville, and Hendersonville City Schools. Upon retirement she taught at Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute until her death. She held many important positions in local and state educational agencies and organizations including Delta Kappa Gamma Teacher's Society. Her credentials were outstanding and her achievements were many.

She was active in Hendersonville First Baptist Church mission work and taught Sunday School. The Kings made several mission tours to the West Coast and to the Orient. She served many years as historian for Carolina Baptist Association.

When featured by the Hendersonville Times-News in Prime Time, she was quoted as saying, "Teaching has given me a sense of direction, a realization of my own value in the world and a continuing growth. I believe that it doesn't matter who you are or what you have or do; if you give your very best, the best returns to you."

ASSOCIATIONAL MINUTES April 26, 1994

Carolina Baptist Association, in its one hundred seventeenth year, met for its first spring session on Tuesday April 26, 1994 at 6:50 P.M. with Moderator Bobbie Arrowood, pastor of Mount Gilead Baptist Church, presiding.

Music Director Beverly Smith led the congregation in a time of praise.

Host Pastor Roy Waldroup welcomed the messengers and friends, gave the devotional and led the invocation.

Chaplain Jane McGowan of Hospice gave the ministry testimony. She spoke of the hospice ministry to terminally ill patients, families and care givers. She stated that the ministry offers assistance in physical, spiritual and emotional areas. Her ministry text is Matthew 25:36 "I was sick and ye visited me."

The printed program was adopted and Clerk Lucy Sitton reported the enrollment of ninety messengers and twenty-eight visitors for a total of one hundred eighteen.

Vice Moderator W. W. Willingham recognized new pastors and staff members: Thomas Sherwood, pastor of Bearwallow Baptist Church, Mitchel Crow, minister of music at Ebenezer, and Tim Turner, minister of education at Ebenezer Baptist Church.

Beverly Smith led the congregation in singing Glory Land.

BUSINESS

Paul Chandler gave the report of the Nominating Committee (see copy attached). There were no nominations from the floor. It was noted that no one had been enlisted to serve as Sunday School Director. The nominees were elected.

Harold McKinnish gave the Place and Preacher Committee report. The report recommended that the 1995 spring session be held at Mills River Baptist Church with the Reverend Dr. Thad Dowdle preaching the annual sermon, and that the fall session be held on October 24, 1995 at Hendersonville First Baptist Church.

Sandy Campbell gave the Language Committee Report. Mision Bautista is doing well under the leadership of pastor Alfredo Oviedo, who is expected to complete his Master's Degree at UNCA soon. On Easter, four persons were baptized and one joined by letter.

Mision Bautista member Vicente Zepede continues his mission work in his home town in the mountains of Mexico. The twenty mission members are in the process of constructing a church building in an isolated area without adequate roads. He has a video for interested churches.

Chair Bill Willingham gave the Associational Council Report. The Council recommended, with the concurrence of the Committee on Finance, that the Association purchase the parking area from West Hendersonville Baptist Church for thirty-two thousand seven hundred dollars ($32,700). The recommendation suggested that payment be made from operations surplus which could be restored with gifts from churches for this purchase. If churches do not contribute enough to cover the cost, up to half the cost is to be replaced from camp sale funds. The motion passed without opposition.

The Associational Council recommended that the process for electing a career director of missions be extended up to two years with Alex Booth and Zeke Crawford serving until the election of a new director. The recommendation was adopted.

Jim Clouse, Church Growth Consultant for the State Convention and Associational Sunday School Director, reported the availability of church growth revival led by six lay-leaders who work with Fred Lunsford under the auspices of the Baptist Sate Convention of North Carolina. He also announced an Associational Sunday School Rally October 9-10, 1994 with high attendance day in Sunday School on the ninth.

Zeke Crawford reported that the loan obligation of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas, left to Carolina Baptist Association in Frank Neville's will, is in negotiation. A letter in response to Mr. Booth's inquiries about payment, asks the permission of the Association to begin repayment August 15, 1994. Harold McKinnish requested an explanation. Mr. Booth explained that Frank Neville had loaned Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas money that had not been repaid. In his last will and testament, Mr. Neville left the proceeds from the loan to Carolina Baptist Association with the stipulation that it be repaid to the Association within ten years, unless the Association made other arrangements. It appeared that the loan was for more than one hundred thousand dollars. With interest, it had grown to about two hundred thousand dollars. Because of financial problems, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas had not begun payments. Paul Chandler moved that the Association inform them that repayment must be within the ten year period with a minimum of ten percent of the balance being paid each year. The motion was seconded and passed.

Mr. Booth announced that printed material for use in raising funds to pay for the parking property was available at the registration table for messengers to take to their churches.

The closing worship service began with Beverly Smith leading the congregation in singing Glad Reunion Day. Guy Smith, pastor of Crab Creek Baptist Church, read the scripture and introduced the speaker. Special Music was presented by Deborah Moore, minister of music at French Broad Baptist Church.

Steve Scoggins, pastor of Hendersonville First Baptist Church, preached the annual sermon using John 13:34-35 on the theme Does Anybody Care. He preached that churches minister effectively only when they care enough to reach out, when they care enough to genuinely welcome sinners, and when their love is unconditional; what he called scandalous grace.

Moderator Bobbie Arrowood declared the Annual Spring Session adjourned and called upon Thomas Sherwood, new pastor at Bearwallow Baptist Church, to lead the benediction.

Respectfully submitted,
Lucy Sitton, Associational Clerk.

ASSOCIATIONAL MINUTES
October 25, 1994 4:00 P.M.

1. The time of praise was led by Michael Smith with the congregation singing He Keeps Me Singing and Love lifted me. James Reed was the pianist.

2. Moderator Bobbie Arrowood declared the 117th Annual Fall Meeting in session.

3. Host pastor Guy Smith welcomed the messengers, gave the devotional using Ephesians 3:14-21, and led the invocation.

4. The moderator pointed out some changes in the printed program, and it was adopted.

5. Noel Watts was not present to give the ministry testimony.

6. Vice Moderator Bill Willingham directed the messengers to the Associational Council Report on page two of the Book of Advanced Reports. The report was approved.

7. Chair Paul Chandler called attention to the nominating committee report on pages twenty and twenty-one of the Book of Advanced Reports. Tim Turner was nominated to replace Jim Clouse as Sunday School Director, Ruby Pruitt was nominated to replace Margaret King as Historian, and Wilburn Lefler was nominated to replace Roy Moritz as Stewardship Director. The report was adopted.

8. Chairperson Hazel Duncan called attention to the Committee on Committees report on pages twenty-two through twenty-four. She recognized the other members of the committee; Gene Adams, Mildred Bresnahan, Linda Fretz, Leonard Lemmons, Tommy Martin and Fred Trachsel. The report was approved.

9. Director of Mission Ministries Mervin Garrison recognized Peggy Laughter who called attention to the Migrant Work report on page sixteen of the Book of Advanced Reports. She expressed special appreciation for the support of Mision Bautista during the migrant season.

Sandy Campbell called attention to the Spanish Mission Report and asked for help in replacing the sign at the mission.

Mervin reported that financial aid had been provided by the Association to several mission volunteers including the group who went to Russia with Michael Smith and Bob Dutton who was in Russia at the time of the report.

He reported that the World Mission Conference in October, 1994, was the best he remembered, with an accumulated attendance of more than four thousand. The Association funded all costs and the offerings taken during the sessions at the ten host churches amounted to almost four thousand dollars.The honorarium to each missionary was two hundred seventy-eight dollars. He encouraged the ten groups of churches to build upon the fellowship established during the World Missions Conference. The report was adopted.

10. Director of Church Development Michael Smith expressed gratitude for the directors in his council, noting that they were all well trained and anxious to work with churches. He lauded the work of Jim Clouse as Sunday School Director, who is still available to the churches as a consultant with the Baptist State Convention. Tim Turner will be the new Sunday School Director. The Church Development Report on pages eight through eleven was adopted.

11. Faith Searcy spoke to the Media Report. She encouraged the use of resources for personal witnessing such as tracts with Halloween treats, Christmas cards, payments of bills and tips left for service.

12. The congregational hymn Praise Him was led by Michael Smith.

13. Associational Clerk Lucy Sitton presented certificates of appreciation to Betty Capps for serving Horse Shoe Baptist Church as clerk for thirty-six years, Ruby Pruitt for thirty years at Balfour Baptist Church and Theron Mullinax for twenty-five years as clerk for Tuxedo Baptist Church.

She announced that forty-four Annual Church Profiles had been received and that twenty-nine church clerks qualified for the Honor Roll (printed in the annual minutes).

14. Visiting denominational agency representatives Robert Parsons (Gardner-Webb University and Divinity School), Jimmy Creech (Campbell University) and Jim Clouse (Baptist State Convention) were recognized for their inspiring reports.

15. Fred Trachsel presented the Family Life Council Report on pages 11-13 in the Book of Advanced Reports. He commended directors Doris McGee (Senior Adults), Judy Sinyard (Singles Enrichment), Mark Hunnicut (Youth Enrichment) and Kay Garrison (Family Enrichment), to the churches. He was asked to say something about the Counseling ministry. He expressed appreciation for how the ministry was going and for the good support.

16. Host Pastor Guy Smith gave information concerning church facilities and the evening meal.

17. David MacEachern led the benediction and blessing upon the food.

ASSOCIATIONAL MINUTES
October 25, 1994 7:00 P.M.

1. Music Director Beverly Smith led a joyful praise session using choruses I Will Praise Him, Hallelujah and Jesus, accompanied by James Reed at the piano.

2. Clerk Lucy Sitton reported an enrollment of 129 messengers, sixteen registered visitors and several who had not registered yet. The total enrollment was 145 from 30 churches.

3. The Memorial Service was led by Alex Booth using the thirty-fifth chapter of Isaiah. Zeke Crawford led the prayer with background organ and chime music.

BUSINESS

4. The Financial report was presented by Bruce McIntyre who noted a nine percent increase in contributions from the churches, the up-grading of office equipment (computers, Phonetree calling system, and fax machine) and the purchase of the parking lot from West Hendersonville Baptist Church. He attributed the good financial condition of the Association to the fact that Alex Booth and Zeke Crawford were working for less than a career Director of Missions would require and to good financial management. The report was adopted.

5. The proposed budget was presented by Committee on Finance Chair Bruce McIntyre. He explained several items of the budget on pages 26 and 27 of the Book of Advanced Reports: $2,000 was allocated for emergency use by the Associational Council. The Missions section of the budget had been raised to keep it above ten percent of the total, the Counseling Ministry was still a single year appropriation, the Building and Maintenance line item has a carry-over provision for anticipated projects with major costs. $2,000 has been added to the line item designated for the next Director of Missions. The salary and benefits for the Financial Secretary had been increased on the recommendation of the Personnel Committee. And provision had been made for the employment of an auditor. On motion by Bruce McIntyre and second by Cecil Young, the budget was adopted.

6. The Camp Fund Committee Report was given by Bruce McIntyre. He recognized committee members Nancy Martin, Theron Mullinax, Fred

Trachsel, Zollie Ward and Alex Booth (ex-officio) who had worked with him. He noted that the report had been published in the newsletter and discussed on several occasions. He gave a thorough explanation of the report and moved its adoption. The motion was seconded. David MacEachern offered a substitute motion that the report be accepted as information and action delayed until the Spring Associational Meeting in April. Paul Chandler seconded the motion. The substitute motion failed, and the main motion was open for discussion. There was none, and the report with its recommendations was adopted.

7. Bruce McIntyre then presented the Camp Fund Committee's recommendation that a special committee composed of the Vice-Moderator, Associational Treasurer, Associate Director of Missions, Nancy Martin (of the Camp Fund Committee) and Todd Freeman (of the Committee on Finance) for the purpose of formulating guidelines for handling the money. He explained that this committee would set up the trust funds with the North Carolina Baptist Foundation and formulate guidlelines for disbursement of income from the trusts for consideration at the Spring Associational Meeting on April 25, 1995 at Mills River Baptist Church. He moved the election of the committee. Jim Clouse seconded the motion. The question was asked whether this committee would be a standing committee. It was stated that the committee would serve only for the purposes designated. No other nominations were made for the committee, and it was elected.

8. Chair Bill Valentine gave the report for the Market Place Ministry Committee. He attributed the dream of a Market Place Ministry to DOM Booth. He reported that the committee, composed of John Rymer, Michael Smith, Girture Young, Mary Clark, David Hyde and David MacEachern, was working with him enthusiastically. After two meetings, the committee is working on a plan for an associational mobile unit that can be used for market place ministry through out the year where crowds gather for special occasions. The committee hopes to have something concrete to present at the Spring Meeting.

9. The Book of Reports was adopted.

10. Hazel Duncan spoke to the History Report, and announced that a plaque in memory of Margaret King would be placed in the Associational Media Center for her many years of service as historian.

11. Chair Edna Corn brought the recommendation of the Committee on Annual Dedication, composed of Lois Ritter, Sandy Campbell and Edna Corn. It was recommended that the annual be dedicated in memory of Margaret King and Manolah Sinclair, and in honor of David Hyde and Lucy Sitton. The recommendation was adopted.

12. Zeke Crawford recommend a resolution of appreciation: On behalf of the messengers comprising the 117th annual fall meeting of the Carolina Baptist Association, we express gratitude to the Crab Creek Baptist Church for their great hospitality, fine facilities and excellent meal. The resolution was applauded enthusiastically.

13. Mervin Garrison reported that funds from the Frank Neville Memorial Foundation were available to churches for mission and ministry causes. Several grants had been made during the associational years. One girl received funds to attend G.A. camp. Two members of the Spanish Mission are attending Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute on scholarships provided by this fund. Several volunteer missionaries have received a grant of $500. He explained that written requests must be presented by churches for these grants.

14. Music Director Beverly Smith led the congregational hymn Victory in Jesus.

15. Vice Moderator Bill Willingham read Romans 8:35-39 and presented Bobbie Arrowood to deliver the Moderator's Message. He noted that the speaker was a graduate of Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute, had served as pastor of Mt. Gilead Baptist Church for almost twenty years, has a wife and three children, and he has served Carolina Baptist Association well as moderator.

16. Music Director presented Phil Staton who sang He's Faithful and True and When He was on the Cross, I was on His Mind.

17. Moderator Bobbie Arrowood expressed special gratitude for musicians Beverly Smith, James Reed and Phil Staton, all of whom had served with him at Mt. Gilead Baptist Church. He preached on Attitudes as found in the first five chapters of Acts. He proclaimed the value of positive attitudes in ministry and fellowship as evidenced in the life of the early church. He spoke of the ministers' meeting each Monday at the Carolina Baptist Association Resource Center as a good example of how positive attitudes had led to a spirit of cooperation among the churches. While negative attitudes continue to hurt the churches and their ministries, he encouraged the messengers to develop the sense of unity the early believers had on the day of Pentecost; that we might teach and demonstrate how the Holy Spirit leads and empowers our lives and ministries.

18. DOM Alex Booth led the installation of officers by recognizing them by groups. The general officers, council directors and department directors were elected on the recommendation of the nominating committee. All committee members were elected on the recommendation of the committee on committees. After asking these groups to stand, he reminded the messengers that God had chosen and elected every believer to serve in some special office to which he wants us all to be faithful. He asked everyone to stand for the installation prayer and benediction by the new Moderator, Bill Willingham.

19. The 117 Annual Meeting Fall Session of Carolina Baptist Association was adjourned.

HISTORY REPORT

by Hazel Duncan

Margaret K. King worked diligently since 1988 to record and preserve the history of the association and the churches. She strongly encouraged every church to record her history because she believed the deeds of the church as a body of Christ merit remembrance.

The method Mrs. King recommended for remembrance was a History Committee in each church to keep continuous record of the churches' worthwhile records. Her goal was to have a History Committee in every church in the association. Will you commit to establishing a History Committee in your church as a tribute to her memory?

As Margaret joins the long line of previous historians, she will be missed, but she would be the first to encourage her successor to strive to preserve the history of the association.

I was privileged to work with Margaret as she gleaned information from Uniform Church Letters, Carolina Baptist News, and any printed information available. Then she compiled the historical accounts of general interest to be incorporated into the Annual Book of Minutes.

One of the goals of the Carolina Media Library Organization has been to establish a study area in the Media Resource Center. The historical records of the associational churches are filed in this room. As a tribute to Margaret King, in appreciation for her years of dedicated service to Carolina Baptist Association, we will dedicate this area as the MARGARET K. KING HISTORY & STUDY AREA. An appropriate plaque will be attached in a prominate place.

CONSTRUCTION

Contemporary: Received $5,000 from Frank Neville Trust Fund and $1,500 from Mountain View Baptist Church for their building fund.

Crab Creek: Remodeled the basement of the older building to provide a nursery, another class room, snack area with refrigerator and two remodeled restrooms.

DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS REPORT

by Alex Booth

Alex Booth and Zeke Crawford have served as co-directors during the current Carolina Baptist Associational year. Growth in the fellowship among the ministers and churches has been gratifying. The weekly ministers meetings provide interaction for church and associational leaders.

Financial matters are good for Carolina Baptist Association. The major concern is that we follow the Lord's will as stewards of all the resources he has provided. All resources of the Association belong to the messengers from the churches.

The function of Carolina Baptist Association is to support, coordinate and encourage churches to work together in church and missions development. The association is composed of messengers from churches who elect officers and employees as servant-leaders to assist cooperating churches.

The Carolina Baptist Association Counseling Ministry provides professional Christian counseling for people served by member churches. Church leaders expressed the need for this counseling ministry during 1993, because a growing number of people need more professional counseling than they can give. The counselor, Fred Trachsel, is professionally trained with a degree in Psychology, twenty years of experience including work as a certified licensed Marriage Counselor and Psychologist LLP, and has a definite calling and affinity for this ministry.

Many people cannot afford the full fee for professional counseling. The Association supplements the cost to make it possible for anyone served by our churches to get the help they need at a cost they can afford. This ministry is growing. It is worthy of constant support.

The proposed Market Place Ministry can be an effective witness to the lost and a constant encouragement to wayward Christians by providing information on all coopcrating churches and Christian ministries supported by Carolina Baptist Association churches.

Alex Booth and Zeke Crawford are grateful for the privilege of working with you.

COUNCIL REPORT

by Bill Willingham

The Associational Council met five times this year. It has been a privilege for me to serve as chair of the Council, and I want to commend each member for their faithfulness and hard work. Matters that were given consideration include:

The World Missions Conference, October 2-5, 1994 * Mervin Garrison requested that up to fifty-five hundred dollars from associational budgeted and surplus funds be designated toward the cost of the World Missions. Offerings from participating churches would cover any additional cost and provide an honorarium for each missionary; the Associational Counseling Ministry * Fred Trachsel was chosen as the Associational Counselor and be supported with funds designated from surplus operational funds; the Phone-Tree Plus communication device * was purchased; the Tax Seminar * was led by George and Joyce Holland February 21, 1994: the purchase of the parking lot from West Hendersonville Baptist Church * the money came from operations surplus and camp funds; the Frank Neville Foundation Fund * Michael Smith suggested a scholarship honoring Beatrice Booth be established for students at Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute. Dr. Booth suggested that Contemporary and Holly Springs churches needed financial help, and it was decided to give both churches $5,000 from the Neville Fund, and several scholarships were granted to those who qualified; the Spring Associational meeting on April 26 at Fletcher First Baptist Church; the evangelism crusade that was conducted in Russia * an anonymous gift of $15,000 assured that the crusade could be televised; and the office computer system was upgraded.

Other action were: participation in the Region Nine Disaster Relief Ministry with Haywood Baptist Association; the Market Place Ministry; the maintenance of the Resource Center grounds; the purchase of a computer music accompanist for use by churches without anyone to play the piano; housekeeping arrangements at the Resource Center; sealing and re-striping the parking lot; the fall associational meeting October 25 at Crab Creek Baptist Church; a designated telephone line for the fax machine; and the report of the Camp Funds Committee.

MISSIONS MINISTRY COUNCIL

by Mervin J. Garrison

A number of our churches are involved in mission ministries beyond the local church. Volunteers are going around the world through both our Foreign Mission program and our Home Mission Program. At this time, only God can know the full impact for the Kingdom of God.

I would encourage each pastor, each church and each mission group to enlarge its vision for missions. No other activity will change the mind and heart of Carolina Baptist Association like direct mission involvement. Please remember that resources are available to assist individuals within our churches to be involved in missions around the world. Your inquiry is encouraged.

The World Missions Confernece, held October 2-5, 1994 has been the highlight of missions within Carolina Baptist Association this year. A new format was tried and the results have been positive. Ten churches were chosen to serve as host churches. Neighbor churches were asked to cluster with the host church for the conference services on Sunday afternoon and Monday through Wednesday nights. Speakers were made available at other times as requested by any church. Ten missionary speakers representing the Foreign Mission Board. the Home Mission Board, and State Missions participated in our conference. Every report was uplifting. The attendance at the ten cluster churches and other events totaled 4,395 people. With the expenses for the conference covered by the Association, we were able to divide the love offerings with the ten speakers. Each missionary received $278.95.

I make this observation. Our churches need and can benefit from fellowship between churches. I encourage our pastors and the Carolina Baptist Association staff to encourage and assist the churches to plan events such as pulpit exchange, joint services and fellowship times. Mission is a common ground for Southern Baptists. Let us be busy at the task.

MIGRANT MINISTRY

by Peggy Laughter

Sandy Campbell presented the program on the Association's work with the migrants in the area at First Baptist Church Saluda on March 7 and at Asheville First Baptist on May 2.

The Migrant Committee held its first meeting on May 23. Dates were changed and confirmed so there would be no conflict with other events. Two combined services were planned and carried out successfully at Bonclarken with an attendance high of 70 in August. A picnic was held on September 18.

Clothes closets and emergency supplies were maintained at Hendersonville First and East Flat Rock First. and also at the Spanish Mission. The Spanish Mission has really been an asset to the Migrant Ministry supplying needed teachers; the Reverend Alfredo Oviedo and Angel Cruz. To you we say a special thank you! To all who helped with your time, talents, money, clothing, preparing meals, teaching, and in any other way, we say thank you for helping make this a successful year in the Migrant Ministry. East Flat Rock First had their best year with an enrollment of 90 and one family returned for their 14th year. the final event is Migrant Night held October 2 at 4:00 p.m. with the Mision Bautista Hispanic "Carolina" Church as host. There was a guest speaker and refreshments following the service. The committee will meet for Evaluation of the year on October 17

MISION BAUTISTA

by Sandy Campbell

It has been a very interesting and good year at the Mission. Two men, Angel Cruz and Vicente Zepeda have received their Preaching License. Rev. Jose Borras from Spain came for a three day revival at which high attendance was 98. There were 12 professions of faith. Rev. Borras gave a most interesting testimony of going from a Catholic Priest to the Baptist Ministry. I have the book, Jose Borras From Monastery to Ministry in Bold Commitment, written by Indy Whitten, Southern Baptist missionary in Spain.

New members number 12 - eleven baptized and one coming on a statement of faith. The total membership is fifty-seven.

New homes were built for Vicente and Dora Zepeda and Aqwpita and Flora Martinez by Henderson County Habitat for Humanity. Rudy Aguero made a quick visit to the mission in May. A covered dish dinner was served.

Balfour Mission Friends brought their "Christmas in August" items to the Mission for kindergarten through sixth grade students. Thirty-six beautiful back-packs filled with everything a student would need were given.

Angel Cruz has enrolled at Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute.

Vacation Bible School was well attended with an average attendance of 46 with dedicated teachers and an excellent program for the following Sunday. A fenced in play-yard for small children has been completed by John McGee and Bob Campbell

Mary Knott, fifth and sixth grade teacher, has retired due to health reasons. We appreciate her years of dedicated service. Alice Trantham, third and fourth grade teacher, is taking a leave of teaching due to health. She will continue as a Mission member. Alice began with the forming of a mission in 1983.

Final services for the Migrant Ministry is held at the Mission the first Sunday in October at 4:00 p.m. Boyce Bible classes are held Sunday mornings and 12 are enrolled. Literacy volunteers are still teaching English at the Mission.

Vicente Zepeda will go to Durango, Mexico in November. We will have an update on the church being built there.

The average Sunday School attendance for August was 83, church attendance 60 and Thursday night Bible study 49.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

by Grace Henson

The Woman's Missionary Union of Carolina Baptist Association has planned and held the following activities and training for all officers and members of each church. Responsible for mission leadership, praying, teaching and giving to mission goals.

Director and WMU Council attended Ridgecrest for State and Southern Baptist Training. Grace Henson and Ruby Pruitt attended the 1994 Southern Baptist Convention conference at Glorietta Conference Center, New Mexico. Other conferences attended were State WMU Conference, Ridgecrest and a G.A. activity at the Baptist Resource Center. In October the director attended the Annual Carolina Baptist Association meeting at Oak Forest and Etowah churches and a Missions Friend activity at Horse Shoe church.

November activities included the World Day of Prayer at East Flat Rock church. Martha Hicks, Missions Coordinator for Buncombe Baptist Association , was the guest speaker. Three hundred fifty cylinders of perfumed talc were sent to the Raleigh Correction Center for Women for their Christmas gifts.

The annual Toy Project for needy children of Henderson County was held December 9 with over 1000 toys distributed.

Balfour church was the site for the January Baptist Young Women's meeting. And the highlight of February was the Pastor Appreciation Night. Dinner was served to fifteen pastors, wives and retired missionaries. Dr. Carl Bates was the guest speaker.

The Prayer Retreat was held at Mud Creek church, there were 109 ladies present for Prayer and Praise.

May 1 the Annual Associational WMU meeting was held at Horse Shoe church. Rev. Steve Scoggins was the speaker. Officers for the new year were installed.

COMMITTEE ON ORDINATION

by John McGee

The committee had three men come before them to be examined for ordination to the Gospel Ministry. The Oak Forest Baptist Church called for the ordination of Mr. J. Roy Moritz. He did well in the examination, was ordained by the church and has been called to serve Blantyre Baptist church.

The Ebenezer Baptist Church called for the ordination of Mr. Mark Hunnicutt. He came before the committee and did well and has been called to be the youth minister of Ebenezer Baptist Church. Ebenezer Baptist church also called for the ordination of Mr. Tom Sherwood. He came before the committee and was recommended for ordination. Ebenezer Baptist Church ordained him and Bearwallow Baptist Church called him to be their pastor. The committee was impressed by all three of these men.

CHURCH DEVELOPMENT REPORT

by Michael Smith

The purpose of the association is to undergird and strengthen the work of the churches within the association. Therefore, the association exists for the benefit of the churches as they cooperate together in Kingdom work.

Carolina Baptist Association has persons who have volunteered their time and expertise for the purpose of helping churches in the areas of Sunday School, Discipleship Training, Brotherhood, Woman's Missionary Union,

Media, Seminary Extension and other areas. These persons are available through the association to help your church in any way possible.

We do not operate with the mind set that "one size fits all." Each church is different in many ways than the other churches of our association. Churches are encouraged to use the resources available through the association so that the work for Christ, in the churches of our association, may be strengthened.

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING

by Bob Dutton

God is at work in the world redeeming a people and drawing them unto Himself. In the act of creation His desire is that we fellowship with Him. As we respond to His love and become obedient to His commands, God invites us to join Him in His work. This is the essence of Experiencing God: Knowing and Doing God's Will, which is taking hold across the world.

I am pleased to report that this LIFE course is also taking hold in churches across our association, as pastors and church members gain new understanding of God's love. If you are not familiar with this course, I invite you to the media center at the BRC for a look at the material. Included is a video tape series of 6 1/2 hours which is ancillary to the study book and the leader's guide. We will be glad to help you get Experiencing God started in your church. Also available in the media center are the leader kits for two other special studies you don't want to miss: A Fresh Encounter: God's Plumb Line for Revival and Spiritual Awakening. and The Mind of Christ.

Fresh Encounter helps us understand God's standards (Amos 7:7), and what we need to do corporately in order to see revival come to our churches. Only out of such a revival will there be spiritual awakening in our land. God's pattern never changes.

The Mind of Christ, written by prayer leader T. W.. Hunt, is an in depth study of Phillipians 2. It can equip us to walk deeper and more intimately with our Lord. But we must humble ourselves as He did - at the foot of the cross.

God wants you to draw closer. Will you respond?

MEDIA REPORT

by Hazel Duncan

A new spark of enthusiasm has entered the Carolina Media Library Organization with the election of Faith Searcy as Media Library Services Director. Her bubbling enthusiasm has ignited a new flame of interest, information and inspiration. She comes to this position with 14 years experience as Associate Media Services Director and Media Library Director in Balfour Baptist Church. She has earned both Media Services and Media Skills diplomas.

Another trained and dedicated worker is Ellazene Corn, Associate Media Library Services Director. She has served as Media Library Director at Ebenezer Baptist Church for 11 years and is working toward her Media Services and Media Skills diplomas.

Faith and Ellazene attended the 1993 State Media Conference at Caraway. Inspiration, fellowship and knowledge gained were highlights of this conference. Two Leadership Training Workshops have been held this year. Some "hands-on" assistance has been given Media directors from Fruitland, East Flat Rock First, Main Street and Tuxedo First.

Plans for the coming year include more leadership training and a joint meeting with the Transylvania Media Library Organization.

One of the goals of the Carolina Media Library Organization has been to establish a study area in the Media Resource Center. This is also where historical records are kept, therefore we will dedicate this area as THE MARGARET K. KING HISTORY & STUDY AREA

The Media Resource Center at the Baptist Resource Center is equipped to undergird all programs of the church - Media, Sunday School, Discipleship Training, Brotherhood, Woman's Missionary Union, Music, Family Life, Stewardship, and Church Growth and Administration.

Churches are urged to take advantage of these resources. Mediagraphies are available to let you know what is in the Media Resource Center.

Your Carolina Media Library Organization leaders, Faith Searcy, Ellazene Corn and Hazel Duncan will assist Media Directors and staff and anyone interested in any phase of media library work

SUNDAY SCHOOL

by Jim Clouse

We conducted a children's and adult workshop at Pleasant Grove, a preschool consultation at Naples, a preschool consultation with Refuge, consulted with Liberty and spoke at the morning worship service. We held a workshop in conjunction with Hendersonville First, and taught one of the sessions.

You have elected five people to your Sunday Assist Team and they are eagerly awaiting your request for assistance. You elected us to attend workshops and bring information and inspiration back to you. This way it doesn't cost every church to do their own thing and it should bring us together to reach Henderson County for Christ.

I have made recommendations in the past concerning reorganization of our structure to better equip us to reach Henderson County.

I still believe we need to implement all the things a long range planning committee recommended several years ago. I don't think it can be accomplished with our current associational structure.

In a Biblical Recorder article written concerning our state evangelism director, Milton Hollifield, it was stated: Hollifield believes strongly in sharing the Good News through building relationships with others - at the dry cleaners, at the grocery store, at the convenience store, etc.

We need to show an interest in all people and make a genuine effort to build trust and respect relationship with them so that we can tell them about Christ, he insists.

We have many programs of evangelism available but we need to focus on church growth, a kind of marshaling of the resources so we can utilize all the church organizations in reaching people, Hollifield explains. He has the hope of developing a group effort which would involve Sunday School, Discipleship Training and the Missions organizations. We are fragmented in our efforts: we need to be unified and work hand in hand to reach people, Hollifield said with feeling.

These are my sentiments exactly and I hope this is the year when we look at our associational organization and do the things that would lead us to accomplish all we have already voted to do.

FAMILY LIFE COUNCIL REPORT

By Fred Trachsel

This has been a productive year for the Family Life Council. Our four faithful enrichment chairpersons and their dedicated committees have done a superb job in their four areas of work. Please pray for them as you read the reports of Mark Hunnicutt, Youth Enrichment; Judy Sinyard, Singles Enrichment; Doris McGee, Senior Adult Enrichment; and Kay Garrison, Marriage and Family Life Enrichment. I am so grateful for the sincere commitment of all these people to these vital areas of ministry. They stand ready to assist your church in any way they can.

I want to thank our churches for praying as we sought the Lord's will concerning a Singles Enrichment chairperson. All those I talked with about this position were dedicated people but God called Judy Sinyard for this challenging ministry. Judy has done a superb job already and we look forward to many more years of fruitful service. Judy replaces Terry Silvers, who previously led our Singles program. He did a commendable job.

A family consists of one or more persons. May we claim Jeremiah 31:1 which says: "At that time, declares the Lord, I will be the God of all the families.

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY ENRICHMENT

by Kay Garrison

The Marriage and Family Enrichment Committee met several times this year for discussion and planning. We were successful in locating a contact person in the area of family life in a large number of our churches. Helpful materials and media resource listings were made available. The chairperson of our committee attended the Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest sponsored by the Baptist State Convention.

In August our committee sponsored a special dinner meeting for the pastors and wives to encourage them in strengthening their marriages so that in turn they will be able to encourage their membership in the area of marriage enrichment. Dr. Michael Hester of the Center for Pastoral Growth and Counseling in Asheville led in a time of sharing and enrichment.

We ask that you keep us informed of events in your church in the area of marriage and family so that we might encourage others.

ADULT ENRICHMENT

by Doris McGee

On November 3, 1993 the associational senior adults met at Refuge Baptist Church with one hundred nineteen present from 20 different churches. On April 20, 1994 they met at Ebenezer Baptist Church with 77 present from 14 churches. The program was led by Doris McGee with a discussion on "How to Stay Young in Heart" - several helped with special music. On August 31, 1994 we met at Etowah Baptist Church with 98 present from 16 churches. The "Joy Singers" led in this with beautiful music. The senior adults gave $90.20 for Russian Bibles and $154 to help Contemporary Baptist . Thanks to all of you for your cooperation.

SINGLES ENRICHMENT

by Judy Sinyard

New Beginning Singles meets every Saturday night at 7:00 p.m. at the Baptist Resource Center.

My concern for the singles comes from the old Indian saying, "Never judge a man until you have walked a mile in his moccasins." Single family homes have doubled and tripled in a very short period of time. Our lifestyles for the 90's and leading into the 20th Century is for almost one of three to be a single family setting.

We have found over the years a changing society. Not only do we have single families, we have men raising the family. We have women going to work and leaving their responsibilities to the husband. A few years ago it was women left to work and raise a family alone. Now we have a growing number of men who are left with this job.

Our families values have changed but our Holy Bible has not and will not. God places a large emphasis on family values. "The family that prays together stays together" does not have the roots it needs today to hold us up.

We need , as singles, to continue our efforts and reach out for the Lord. Begin at home and show our communities that we don't want to just be a statistic. We want what God intended. But due to sin in our world, we are to work together, pull each other up and strive for a Christian family. Even without Mom or Dad, let's strive to be content as Paul in whatever state we are in and to make ourselves available to the Lord to reach out. * Monthly calendar to all churches. * Goal: to meet spiritual and physical needs. * With God all things are possible.

YOUTH ENRICHMENT

by Mark Hunnicutt

The Youth Enrichment Committee had a great year! The Lord is surely moving among the young people of the Carolina Baptist Association. Our summer "Wednesday Night Live" youth rallies were a great success. The average attendance of these events held once a month in June, July, and August was approximately 200 young people, with a total of 35 decisions for Christ.

We as a committee look forward to serving you in the coming year. We have some new ideas and new committee members. Let us know if we can be of any help.

Committee members in 1994 were: Mark Hunnicutt, Adam Bright, Brian Davis, Tim Turner and J.D. Grant. The 1995 will be: Mark Hunnicutt, Adam Bright, Brian Davis, Tim Turner, Jill Ritter and Marrianna Dockery.

BAPTIST CHILDREN'S HOMES

by Janette Ward

Children are God's greatest gift to couples. Unfortunately some couples are not able to take care of their children and others won't. That's where Baptist Children's Homes comes into play.

When a situation is so the child is being neglected, abused, or whatever need is not being met by the family, Baptist Children's Homes takes the child and puts it into a home that is structured as near like a loving Christian home as is possible.

They are given tough love, Christian training, medical and psychological care so they have the opportunity to grow into mature Christian adults. Last year 1,469 children were ministered to through thirteen different facilities in North Carolina.

The Cooperative Program and the Thanksgiving offering provide about one third of this eleven million dollars cost to provide schooling, clothing, medical and counseling, food and many other unexpected crises. Other money is provided by individual gifts, wills and estates. All gifts are used wisely and economically.

The children of today are the world leaders of tomorrow. We need prayers, volunteer workers and whatever money God lays on your heart to give to invest in the future of our children. Many children come to us in such a depressed state until they have tried to commit suicide. Through counseling, disciplining, love and prayer they have become strong Christian adults. Everyone who gives has a part in this.

NC BAPTIST FOUNDATION

by Girtrue Young, Consultant

The North Carolina Baptist Foundation is a trust and endowment agency promoting giving by will and other means to trusts to support Baptist causes. Our aim is to assist Baptists of North Carolina develop plans where by their stewardship will be funding Baptist causes until the Lord comes again. The Foundation, with thanksgiving, announced as of December 31, 1993, $45.8 million was held under management. In 1993, $1,243,271 was distributed to Baptist work and $1,196,748 was distributed to individuals for a total income distribution of $2,439,965.

The Foundation staff consists of seven full-time employees and two persons who provide part-time service in accounting and legal services. May 1994 brought good news to the western area of our state. Rev. Coy H. Jeans, Jr. was employed by The Foundation and a Western Area Office was opened in Marion, NC. Rev. Jean's official title is Manager of Trust and Endowment Development and can be reached at telephone number 704-652-9548. Rev. Jeans will serve individuals in the area through estate stewardship planning to better provide for families and Christian endeavors. He will also work very closely with associations and churches.

The Carolina Baptist Association receives funds through the Foundation for which we are very grateful and praise the planning of individuals, who now have gone to be with the Lord, for their continuing stewardship.

February 1920 The Foundation was chartered and plans are to celebrate the 75th Anniversary beginning with our North Carolina Baptist State Convention, November 11, 1994 through February 1995.

Remember The Foundation is your agency and its staff desires to serve. Let us assist in your future stewardship plans. We believe we can provide a channel through which you can minister to needs that are significant to you.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve.

RETIREMENT HOMES

by John Rymer

The Baptist Retirement Home has been ministering for forty-three years to the older citizens of the State of North Carolina. Dr. William B. Stilllerman is the director of this important ministry. Others minister with him, including W. Paul Riggs, who was hired this year to serve as Chaplain to the residents of the Prince Nursing Care Center in Winston-Salem and the Rickman Nursing Care Center in Asheville.

Reaffirming its commitment to the idea that retirement should be a "step-up" for older adults, the renovation of the Taylor House in Albemarle was completed and renovation of the Hamilton Baptist Home in Martin County was begun. When the renovation of the Hamilton Baptist Home is completed in mid-1995, all of the facilities operated by the Baptist Retirement Homes will be "State -of -the-Art."

In an effort to provide older adults with affordable care, a sub-acute unit was developed at the Prince Nursing Care Center in Winston-Salem ... a unit where frail older adults can receive such treatment as IV therapy, infusion, stroke and bone fracture rehabilitation outside of the hospital setting.

In response to the need for quality long-term care services to the ever growing number of frail Baptist older adults, Baptist Retirement Homes expanded its nursing services in 1994 to include an additional 100 older adults. (805 of that group being classified as the poor elderly ... men and women who lack sufficient financial resources to pay for institutional services they receive.)

North Carolina Baptists can be proud of the ministry of our Retirement Homes. We need to pray for the personnel who staff these facilities and we need to give to our Special Offerings so that this ministry can continue to assist and bless lives of many people.

COOPERATIVE PROGRAM

Bill Willingham

One of the most important programs that Southern Baptists support is the Cooperative Program. It is a part of your tithes and offerings given through your church. Because you care enough to give your dedicated life, with a part of your day-to-day labor, goes toward witnessing to a lost and needy world. The Cooperative Program is sharing your love of God through state, home, and foreign missionaries. These missionaries last year were instrumental in bringing thousands of people to a knowledge of Christ who in turn followed Him by being baptized.

The Cooperative Program is ministering to the needs of the sick through 21 Baptist hospitals and more than one hundred clinics in many nations around the world. You helped more than a million patients last year who could not pay the cost of their care and treatment. The Cooperative Program also aids in providing shelter, food, clothing, and other necessities of life to countless homeless children plus several thousand elderly people through Children's Homes and Homes for the Aging throughout the world. In the field of education, the Cooperative Program is busy training responsible leaders by assisting students with scholarships in more than 800 Baptist schools with numerous pupils around the world.

As we move toward the close of the twentieth century and the beginning of the twenty-first century, let us pray that more and more Southern Baptists will recognize the need to major on ministering to the needs of the whole person. The kind of world that we live in has opened and will continue to open up doors of service to Baptists as never before. As God's Word so clearly teaches, the time to launch out as the people of God on mission - is RIGHT NOW.

We must serve faithfully where we live if we are to be a people on mission, however, we must not stop there. Every Baptist church can and should extend its witness to the far corners of the earth. There is no better way for this to be done than through each church wholeheartedly participating in giving through the Cooperative Program. In such a way, we help support others who will carry the Gospel message where we ourselves cannot go.

As we face a new year in our associational work, let us endeavor to do two important things: Will you lead your church to make a worthy increase in Cooperative Program giving? Will you covenant with us to pray for your missionaries and other Cooperative Program causes every day?

TEMPERANCE & PUBLIC MORALS

by Paul B. Chandler, Jr

The 1994 Session of the North Carolina General Assembly is now adjourned and all gambling bills are "dead" for this year. Praise the Lord

The $300 billion gambling industry hired 12 powerful lobbyists who worked hard to get gambling legislation passed, but many Baptists and other Christians prayed, wrote, phoned and personally contacted their legislators and no legislation was enacted. We thank the Lord for the victory!

Remember, we need to be ever vigilant and to stand on the side of righteousness. We are reminded that "Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people." (Proverbs 14:34)

CONSTITUTION
Carolina Baptist Association

Preamble:
We, the messengers of cooperating Baptist churches in Henderson, and parts of Buncombe and Polk Counties, North Carolina, propose to establish and maintain the principles of a district association consistent with this constitution.

Article I - NAME
The name of this body shall be "Carolina Baptist Association, Inc."

Article II - PURPOSE
To aid churches in their obedience to the Great Commission, and, seeking direction from the unchanging God in a constantly changing world, it shall be the purpose of Carolina Baptist Association, Inc. to help churches cooperate with koinonia in missions, evangelism and growth projects they cannot do alone. The Association shall be a resource center for training and equipping church workers to be more effective in performing their duties. The Association shall encourage cooperation in the denomination for the advancement of God's Kingdom.

Article III - MEMBERSHIP
Section 1. Carolina Baptist Association, Inc. shall be composed of messengers from cooperating member churches.

Section 2. The Association shall be sole judge of its membership and may receive churches, or reject churches according to its Constitution and By-Laws.

Section 3. Churches who want to join the Association may apply to the Membership Committee. Upon the committee's recommendation to the Association, a church may be received under watch-care for a period of one year during which the church shall have all the rights and privileges of membership except that members may not vote nor hold office. After a satisfactory relationship for one year, the church can be received into full membership.

Section 4. A church may withdraw from the Association by transfer of letter to another association or by an official request to have that church removed from the membership role.

Article IV - MEETINGS
Section 1. Carolina Baptist Association, Inc. shall meet regularly on the fourth Tuesday evening in April from 7:00 through 9:00 P.M., at which meeting general officers shall be elected, and on the fourth Tuesday in October, from 4:00 P.M. through 9:00 P.M. each year.

Section 2. Special meetings may be called for specified purposes by the Moderator or the Associational Council provided that two weeks notice is given to member churches.

Section 3. Messengers shall be elected annually by each member church. In addition to the pastor, one messenger for each fifty (50) members of the church may be elected provided that no church shall have less than three (3) nor more than ten (10) messengers. The names of messengers who attend and register during the annual associational meeting shall be listed in the minutes.

Article V - AUTHORITY
Each church is autonomous. A church does not instruct its messengers how to vote, and no church is under the authority of the Association in any way. All relationships are cooperative.

Article VI - OFFICERS
Section 1. The general officers of Carolina Baptist Association shall be a moderator, vice moderator, clerk, treasurer and historian.

Section 2. General officers shall be elected at the spring meetings by a majority vote for candidates presented by the nominating committee or from the floor. All nominations must be with the prior consent of the nominee. They shall serve for one year beginning at the close of the fall meeting and ending at the close of the next fall meeting.

Section 3. (a) A parliamentarian shall be appointed by the moderator to serve during his term of office.

(b) If the office of moderator becomes vacant, the vice moderator shall become moderator for the remainder of that term. Other vacancies in associational offices shall be filled by the Association on recommendation by the nominating committee or from the floor, with the prior consent of the nominee.

(c) A moderator shall not serve more than two terms in succession.

Section 4. The major divisions of work; Missions, Church Programs, Administration, Pastoral Emphases, Family Life and others, as determined by the Association, shall be coordinated by councils. Each council chair shall be nominated by the nominating committee or from the floor, with the prior (Continued) consent of the nominees, to a term of one year from January through December.

Section 5. (a) A program director shall be elected in April, for Sunday School, Discipleship Training, WMU, Brotherhood, Music, Youth, Senior Adults, Single Adults, Seminary Extension, Church Media, VBS and other organizations which may be added by the Association. Nominations may be presented by the nominating committee or from the floor with the prior consent of each nominee, for terms of three (3) years, beginning January 1 after election, Vacancies may be filled in like manner.

(b)The Program Directors will serve three-year terms beginning in January following election, but they will be responsible for planning the program and budget for each of the years under their direction.

(c) Each Director will select workers for that area and present them to the Association for approval.

Article VII - TRUSTEES
Three trustees shall be elected to single rotating terms of three years. It is suggested that one of the three be a lawyer. Nominations may come from the nominating committee or from the floor with the prior consent of each nominee. The expiration date of each trustee's term of office shall appear by his name in the Associational Minutes.

Article VIII - BOARD OF DIRECTORS
Carolina Baptist Association, Inc. shall function as a corporation. The Director of Missions shall serve as president of the board composed of the trustees and the treasurer. The treasurer shall serve as secretary of the board.

Article IX - EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE
The Carolina Baptist Association Executive Committee shall be composed of the associational officers, Director of Missions (ex-officio), chairs of all standing committees and the persons holding or representing the following positions in each member church· pastor, Sunday School director, Discipleship Training director, WMU director, Brotherhood director, Music director, Youth director, Senior Adult director, Single Adult director and chair of deacons. The Executive Committee shall have the authority to act for the Association between session as limited by the Constitution and By-laws. It shall meet regularly in January and July. A quorum shall consist of those present at regular meetings and called meetings with two weeks notice to all member churches.

Article X - ASSOCIATIONAL COUNCIL
The Associational Council shall consist of the moderator, vice moderator, clerk, treasurer, chair of each council, and the associational staff members (ex-officio). The Associational Council shall function in an advisory capacity for planning, promoting, correlating and reviewing the total associational program. The Council sub-committee, consisting of the Moderator, Vice Moderator, Clerk and Treasurer, shall serve as a standing personnel committee. The Council shall meet prior to each meeting of the Association.

Article XI - COMMITTEES

Section 1 - Standing Committees Members of all standing committees shall be elected from nominees by the Committee on Committees or from the floor, with the prior consent of each nominee, to rotating terms of three (3) years beginning in January after election. The standing committees shall be: Auditing, Constitution, Evangelism, Family Enrichment, Finance, Language Ministries, Membership, Migrants, New Work, Nominating, Order of Business, Ordination, and Pastor/Church Relations.

Section 2. The following committees shall be appointed by the Moderator at least thirty days before the annual meeting: Committee on Committees, Committee on Enrolment, Committee on Resolutions and Committee on Place and Preacher

Artlcle XII - AMENDMENTS

Amendments to the constitution may be made at any regular annual meeting. The amendment must be presented by distribution in printed form during the first session, reviewed by the Constitution Committee and voted upon the next session. Two thirds of the messengers present and voting , by standing, shall be required.

Dedicated in Honor of

Ruby Laughter Pruitt

Ruby Laughter Pruitt was born in Henderson County, North Carolina, to Lloyd M. and Martha P. Laughter on December 21, 1931. She graduated from Flat Rock High School in 1949, and was married to Harold E. Pruitt on August 27, 1950. They have two daughters, two sons and nine grandchildren.

At the age of twelve, Ruby professed Christ as her personal savior and was baptized into the membership of Valley Hill Baptist Church. The Pruitts joined Balfour Baptist Church in 1950 where they continue to serve the Lord. She has served as Sunday School Teacher, Sunday School Director, Woman's Missionary Union Leader, Church Clerk and Mission Friends Leader.

Mrs. Pruitt has served in several ways outside her own church. She is a volunteer for Blue Ridge Literacy Council (at this writing she is teaching two students). She has served in several positions in Carolina Baptist Association and has done much volunteer work through the years. Among positions she has held in the Association are Woman's Missionary Union Officers, worked on several nominating committees and is now the official Historian.

Ruby's twenty-five year career at public work began in 1966 when she was employed by the United States Postal Service as a clerk. In 1973, she was appointed postmaster at Balfour, North Carolina. Ruby retired from her position in January of 1992.

Dedicated in Honor of

Dr. and Mrs. George A. Jones

George A. Jones was born in Saluda, North Carolina. He graduated from Lees McRae and Lenoir Rhyne College and received the ThM and PhD degrees from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. He married Evelyn Masden in 1944 during his first pastorate. They have four children, five grandchildren and one great-grandchild. He served as a chaplain during World War II.

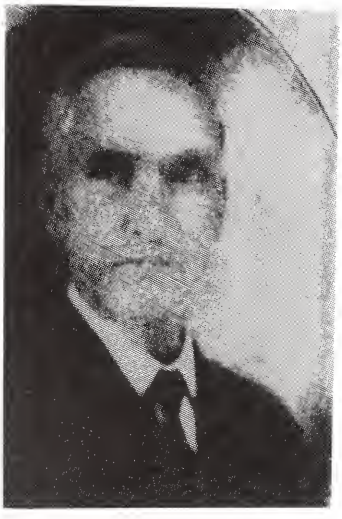
He served four churches in Kentucky and South Carolina before becoming the Director of the Northern Kentucky Baptist Association. He served as visiting professor at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and the University of South Carolina.

Dr. Jones served in many denominational positions in Kentucky and South Carolina, was one of the founders of Baptist College of Charleston and led in the establishment of three new churches while in Beaufort, South Carolina.

Mrs. Jones is a retired educator. She established and directed the kindergarten and day care program in Beaufort, South Carolina. She served as WMU director for the Savannah River Baptist Association and was active in missions education locally and at the state level.

In retirement, Dr. and Mrs. Jones served with the Foreign Mission Board in Germany and Wales. They assisted with the Billy Graham Crusade in Moscow, Russia. They are active in Hendersonville First Baptist Church.

Community service includes: chair of the Henderson County Sesquicentennial Committee, on the North Carolina Bicentennial Constitution Commission, president of the Apple Festival, on the board for Farm-City Day, chair of the VE-VJ anniversary commemoration, and he was recently appointed Executive Director of the Henderson County History Center. Mrs. Jones serves as president to the Henderson County Genealogical and Historical Society.



Dedicated in Memory of

Elder Amos Isaac Justice

Elder Amos Isaac Justice was born near Edneyville December 8, 1851 and died in on December 21, 1945. He married Minerva Fisher (died 1933). They had seven children, Lillie, Julie, Mae, Minnie, Lola, John Robert and James Foy. They had 22 grandchildren, 24 great-grandchildren and 3 great-great-grandchildren.

Elder Justice was ordained by Bethel Baptist Church in 1877. He served French Broad Baptist Church (1877-1881), Oak Grove (1878-1883), Bethel (1882-1885), Mt. Carmel (1885-1889), Fair View (1891-1895), Fruitland (1895-1898), Old Salem (1898), Enon (1899), and retired from Marshall Baptist Church in 1930,

He helped establish five church in Henderson, Buncombe, Madison and Polk Counties. His training for ministry included study under Professor C. W. McCarthy as Judson College, a private school led by Professor J. B. Lunsford, and Weaverville College. As a result of his struggle for an education, Elder Justice was motivated to provide better schools. He led in the establishment of Fruitland Baptist Institute in 1898, and served as the first principal. Fruitland Institute was a denominational boarding high school. That school closed in 1936. In 1946, the property was bought by the Baptist State Convention and became Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute. He also helped begin Fairview School in Buncombe County.

Elder Amos Isaac Justice died at the age of ninety-four and thirteen days. His body is buried in Oakdale Cemetery.

Marion Lee Walker

Marion Lee Walker was born in the mill village of Glendale, South Carolina in 1894. In his late teen years he moved to southern Henderson County to find work. He probably was encouraged to move by his uncle, Perry Hoke Walker, who was called "The father of East Flat Rock" by Frank Fitzimons in his book From the Banks of the Oklawaha, Volume Two. Chapter twelve is entitled, "The Father of East Flat Rock."

He met Ida Kate Carswell, the daughter of a Georgia plantation owner who owned a summer residence in Hendersonville. Their marriage was delayed by the World One, in which Marion served with distinction as a military policeman in France. After the war, they were married and settled in East Flat Rock in a home built on a lot given them by his Uncle Perry.

He formed a partnership with J. H. Stepp to found an old time general store named Stepp and Walker with the motto "Everything for Everybody." It was the primary business center of East Flat Rock for many years.

In addition to being a "pillar in East Flat Rock First Baptist Church," M. L. Walker took a vital interest in churches working together in the Carolina Baptist Association. Between 1937 and the 1960's, he served eleven times as moderator. His leadership is credited with building the Association to more than one hundred churches in Henderson and Transylvania Counties.

In 1940 Marion moved to Hendersonville and established the Walker Hardware Company, which is still in the family. He was a leader at Hendersonville First Baptist Church. He taught Sunday School for twenty years. The class was named for him. One of many significant services he gave was as chairman of the building committee for the present sanctuary. In his later years he served on the General Board of the Baptist State Convention.

Marion Lee Walker was an honest business man, a loving family man, and he lived a life of full service to his God. He was a true Christian gentleman.

ASSOCIATIONAL MINUTES
April 25, 1995

Carolina Baptist Association, in its one hundred eighteenth year, met for its spring session on Tuesday April 25, 1995 at 6:50 P.M. at Mills River Baptist Church with Moderator W. W. Willingham presiding.

Music Director Beverly Smith led the congregation in a time of praise with the Reverend James Reed at the piano.

Host Pastor Wade Laughter welcomed the messengers and friends, gave the devotional and led the invocation.

Associational Counselor Fred Trachsel gave the ministry testimony. He spoke of his background and calling to the counseling ministry. He emphasized the importance of the Associational Counseling program and its availability.

The printed program was adopted and Clerk Lucy Sitton reported the enrollment of seventy-two messengers and twenty-one visitors, with a total of twenty-four churches represented..

Vice Moderator Michael Smith recognized new pastors and staff members: David Orr, pastor of Refuge Baptist Church, Wade Laughter, pastor of Mills River Baptist Church, Dean Elliott, pastor of Mount Moriah Baptist Church, and Bob Terrell, Jr., pastor of Balfour Baptist Church

Beverly Smith led the congregation in singing Jesus Saves.

BUSINESS

The Treasurer's Report was approved as printed.

The Moderator announced the appointment of Kenny Corn, Bill Landreth, Harold Pruitt, Harold McKinnish and Ralph McMinn to the Place and Preacher Committee. He announced that Max Smith, David MacEachern and David Orr would serve on the Resolutions Committee.

The moderator expressed appreciation to Sybil Laughter, Polly Cartee, Cora Morris, Cindy Norman and Vanessa Sitton for registering messengers and visitors.

Paul Chandler gave the report of the Nominating Committee (see copy attached). There were no nominations from the floor. The nominees were elected. He announced vacancies for Brotherhood Director and a trustee which should be a lawyer.

Kenny Corn gave the Place and Preacher Committee report. The report recommended that the spring session be held on April 23, 1996 at Pleasant Grove Baptist Church with the Reverend David Hyde preaching the annual sermon and The Reverend David Orr as the alternate. The Committee recommended that the fall session be held at Mud Creek Baptist Church on October 22, 1996. The report was adopted.

Sandy Campbell gave the Language Committee Report. Mision Bautista is doing well with major improvements in the Children's Church under the direction of Amanda Fraizer. Twelve to eighteen children are involved. Attendance at Mision Bautista Carolina has averaged 81 in Sunday School and 96 in worship during the last month.

Mrs. Campbell expressed appreciation for the faithful service of Alice Trantham, Mary Knott, Vivian Letterman and Judy Sinyard, who no longer work at the Mission. She then asked for help to replace the sign at the mission with a more permanent one.

She reported that Vincente Zepeda's efforts to establish a church in his home community in Mexico is going well. The building is completed. Now the major need is for teaching material. He has a video on the work that he can bring to interested churches and groups.

Chair Michael Smith gave the Associational Council Report. He added to the report on Mision Bautista that pastor Alfredo Oviedo is in preparation to participate in the evangelistic crusade in Russia. Then he presented the Council's recommendation concerning the Camp Fund Special Committee's report on how proceeds from investments will be used. The report had been printed in the newsletter prior to the meeting. A copy was printed in the program. He explained the priorities in the report. The recommendation was seconded and approved without dissent.

Hazel Duncan, chair of the Committee on Committees presented the name of Richard Barnwell to replace Leonard Lemmons on the Committee on Finance and recommended that Bill Landreth serve as chair. The report was approved. She mentioned that Kay Garrison must be replaced on the Family Life Council.

Beverly Smith led the congregation in singing Rescue the Perishing.

Bill Clevenger, chaplain for Blue Ridge Prison Ministries read the Scripture from Joshua, the eighth chapter, and introduced the Reverend Roy Waldroup, pastor of Fletcher First Baptist Church to bring the annual sermon.

It was suggested that special prayer be offered for the families and rescue workers involved in the Oklahoma City tragedy. Special prayer was asked for Ralph Banning's back surgery and in praise for David Hyde's recovery from cancer. The Reverend John Rymer was asked to lead the prayer.

Beverly Smith suggested that the congregation present the special music by singing Set My Soul Afire, Lord.

Roy Waldroup's text was "Letting God Prepare Us to Rescue the Perishing." He used the experience of Rahab to show how God worked in her life to rescue her and her family when she made her commitment without compromise. He used his personal experience with a near death illness to illustrate how God can bring us to that kind of commitment.

The Resolutions Committee report was presented by David MacEachern; We resolve to express our sincere appreciation to our brothers and sisters of Mills River Baptist Church and to their pastor, Wade Laughter, for their gracious hospitality in hosting the Spring Session of the 1995 Annual Meeting.

We further resolve that we express our sincere appreciation to the speaker for the annual sermon, Roy Waldroup. His message was indeed a blessing.

We further express our sincere appreciation to the Co-Directors of Missions and the staff of Carolina Baptist Association for their hard work and fine leadership.

We finally resolve that all the messengers of this 1995 Spring Session of Carolina Baptist Association return to their respective churches and communities spreading the good news of Jesus Christ to all people.

The benediction was give by Bob Terrell, Jr., pastor of Balfour Baptist Church.

Respectfully Submitted

Fall Association Meeting Minutes
October 24, 1995

Afternoon Session 4:00 P.M.

The time of praise was led by Beverly Smith. She led the congregation in singing "He Is Lord" and "There's Something About that Name." James Reed, pastor of Tuxedo First Baptist Church, was pianist. The congregation sang "Happy Birthday" to Director of Missions Alex Booth.

Host Pastor Steve Scoggins welcomed the messengers and visitors. He led a devotion on Romans !2:4-6 on "Celebrate Unity and Diversity" and led the invocation.

Moderator William W. Willingham declared the Fall Session of the 118th Annual Meeting is order.

Vice Moderator Michael Smith directed the attention of the messengers to the Association Council Report (Book of Advanced Reports # 2). He encouraged churches to make use of Frank Neville and Camp Bearwalla funds.

He brought a recommendation from the Association Council that Alex Booth and Zeke Crawford be called to their respective positions on a permanent basis. A motion from the floor was seconded and passed without dissent.

He then asked for prayer for the Council and its heavy responsibility. He stated that Council meetings are open, and anyone is welcome to attend. The Association Council Report was approved.

Historian Ruby Pruitt was not present to give her report (Book of Advanced Reports # 1).

Moderator W. W. Willingham gave the report of the Committee on Committees (Book of Advanced Reports # 17). He expressed appreciation for the members of the committee; Gene Adams, Edna Corn, Linda Fretz, Ray Jones, Wade Laughter, Tommy Martin and Fred Trachsel. There were no nominations from the floor. The report was approved.

Council Mission Ministries Director Mervin Garrison gave a report (not printed in the Book of Advanced Reports). He gave the following hi-lights of Carolina Baptist Association Mission Ministries:

Michael Smith led eleven volunteers on the fourth evangelism crusade in Krasnodar, Russia.

Bob and Anne Dutton taught MasterLife as mission volunteers in Russia.

Anne and Corum Smith went with a team to work on the seminary in Prague.

Mark Searcy led a Back Yard Vacation Bible School at Oak Knoll Apartments in Asheville.

Hendersonville First Baptist Church held a Block Fair.

Fruitland Baptist Church sponsored a Block Blast.

Several Churches have regular rest home ministries.

Baptist Youth lead prayer groups at the school ground flag poles.

Hendersonville First Baptist and other churches participated in the July 4th Liberty Celebration.

French Broad Baptist Church provides a Fifth Quarter fellowship after Friday night ball games. They have fed about two hundred youth and shared the gospel with them.

Interfaith Assistance Ministry is supported by most Baptist Churches.

The chaplaincy ministry at Pardee Hospital is supported by many Baptist churches.

The Meals on Wheels ministry is supported and participated in by some churches.

Ministry Seven has volunteers from several Baptist Churches regularly.

The Association is participating in the Southern Africa Partnership.

He reminded the messengers that Carolina Baptist Association has funds available upon request from cooperating churches for mission ministries. Any church that is led to begin a local ministry and needs money can request a grant. All request are given full consideration by the Council. No church has yet requested money to provide a ministry in housing developments, an after-school ministry for children nor a ministry for the home-bound. Funds are available to help churches send needy boys to Camp Caraway and girls to Camp Munda Vista.

Mission Ministries Elect David MacEachern was recognized to promote the plan for a witness during the Christmas Parade on the second Saturday in December. Youth will wear special sweatshirts and give out tracts and pens with a personal witness. He urged churches to get in touch with the Association Office about their participation.

He announced the Market Place Ministry at Smiley's Flea Market in Fletcher where the Association will have a booth near the New Age booth. He asked for prayer support in this ministry.

Church Development Director Michael Smith gave a report emphasizing assistance offered to the churches by association department leaders in Sunday School, Discipleship Training, Brotherhood, Woman's Missionary Union, Media Library and other areas. He called attention to reports written by Bob Dutton (Book of Advanced Reports # 4).and Faith Searcy (Book of Advanced Reports # 5). The report was adopted.

Miscellaneous Business

Tim Turner urged churches to use the Assist Team which is ready to help any church in the Association with growth in quality and quantity at no cost.

Grace Henson made an announcement about the World Day of Prayer scheduled at Naples Baptist Church November 6th at 7:00 P.M.

Congregational hymn Amazing Grace was led by Beverly Smith with James Reed at the piano.

Recognition of church clerks was given by Lucy Sitton. She read the names of churches whose Annual Church Profiles were in on time. She expressed appreciation for their promptness and for those who helped prepare the annual report for the Association, the Baptist State Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention.

Michael Smith recognized representatives from visiting denominational agencies:

Jim Clouse spoke for the Baptist State Convention Church Growth Consultants. He stated that consultants are strategically located in Western North Carolina. They are available without pay. The churches take care of local expenses only.

Richard Gilmore spoke for the Baptist Children Homes. He encouraged support and interest in the Broyhill homes in Clyde, the special care Moody Home near Franklin and the Maternity home in Asheville.

Linda Blankenship spoke for the Baptist Retirement Homes. She had just come from a hospital visit with Cecil and Girtrue Young. Cecil is under treatment for cancer. The Youngs have provided the Solarium at the Asheville Home. She announced that Luther Osment is now serving Baptist Retirement Homes as chaplain.

James Murphy spoke for the Baptist Hospital. He expressed gratitude for the Cooperative Program and the Mother's Day Offering. He invited everyone to visit the hospital to see how funds are used to help people in need.

John Rymer spoke for Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute. He noted that more than 25% of the churches in Carolina Baptist Association are served by Fruitland graduates. He reported that Baptist Colleges and other institutions of higher learning are recognizing credit earned at Fruitland. He brought greetings from President Randy Kilby.

Moderator Willingham asked John Rymer to lead a special season of prayer for Cecil Young.

Bob Dutton expressed appreciation for the financial aid granted French Broad Baptist Church to help him and his wife travel to Russia to teach Master Life during the summer.

Host Pastor Steve Scoggins gave directions for the evening meal.

Frank Denning, pastor of Naples Baptist Church, asked the Lord's blessing upon the food and gave the benediction.

Prior to the evening meal, special recognition was given to Hazel Duncan upon her retirement as Administrative Assistant. Director of Admissions read the information about Mrs. Duncan provided on a leaflet at each place setting. He then read the statement on the plaque before presenting it to her.

Paula Janes spoke next. "We wanted to do something special for Hazel; something she could take with her when she left her position. I was hard to decide what to do. Nothing seemed enough. So we put together a scrapbook of memories. We tried to contact everyone who had worked with Hazel over the years.

Evening Session 7:00 P.M.

The Time of Praise was led by Beverly Smith. She led the congregation is singing Alleluia, We are One in the Bond of Love and O, How He Loves You and Me. James Reed played the piano.

Boyce Bishop Led the Memorial Service. He read First Thessalonians 4:13-18 for the devotional. He read the list of church members who had died during the year. After a time of silent prayer, Boyce Bishop led a vocal prayer.

Vice Moderator Michael Smith recognized pastors and church staff members who had come into the Association: Linda Marie Hyde, association office secretary; Frank Denning, pastor of Naples Baptist Church; Gary McCaleb, pastor of Mountain Valley Baptist Church; and Darrin Waldroup, associate pastor of Fletcher First Baptist Church. He then challenged everyone to take the yoke of Christ for Kingdom work.

Michael Smith recognized Dr. J. Edward Humphrey, who was visiting with John and Doris McGee. Dr. Humphrey is renowned for his service as professor of Theology and Church History at the seminary in Nigeria and for his years of service as professor the Theology at Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary.

Lucy Sitton reported that registration included 150 messengers and 23 visitors for a total of 173. She recognized members of Hendersonville First Baptist Church who has served the registration desks: Ella Lee Arledge, Clara Clark, Imogene Crawford, Grace Henson and Velma Rymer. She noted that Carolina Baptist Office staff members Paula Janes and Linda Marie Hyde also helped.

Business Session

Bill Landreth presented the Committee on Finance report ((Book of Advanced Reports back page). The proposed budget for 1996 totaled $146.946. The budget had been printed in the Association Newsletter. There were no questions. The motion to accept the proposed budget was seconded and passed without opposition.

The Book of Advanced Reports was adopted.

Sandy Campbell presented the Annual Dedication Committee report. She recognized the other members of the committee; Jane Lewis and Imogene Crawford. The committee recommended that the 1995 Annual be dedicated in honor of Ruby Pruitt and George A. Jones; and in memory of A. I. Justice and M. L. Walker.

Max Smith presented the Resolution Committee Report: Whereas God has blessed us as individuals, churches and association in the past year, be it resolved that:

We give Him glory and thanks for His grace toward us and for bringing us together for this 118th Annual Meeting Fall Session

We express appreciation to Hendersonville First Baptist Church for the fine hospitality, use of the beautiful facilities and the delicious meal;

We express sincere thanks to the Association Staff (Alex Booth, Zeke Crawford, Paula Janes and Linda Marie Hyde) for their leadership and spiritual support as we seek to be on mission for our Lord;

We express special appreciation to Hazel Duncan, Administrative Assistant, upon her retirement, for nineteen years of faithful, loving service to Carolina Baptists; and

Be it further resolved that we express sincere gratitude to Moderator W. W. Willingham, Vice-Moderator Michael Smith, Clerk Lucy Sitton, Treasurer Audrey Saunders, Historian Ruby Pruitt and to others who served faithfully in various positions to make the 118th year of Carolina Baptist Association a success.

The report also expressed gratitude for the association staff and officers for their leadership. On motion and second the report was approved. (Committee composed of Max Smith, David MacEachern and David Orr.

David MacEachern, pastor of Bat Cave Baptist Church, presented an impassioned plea for help in raising $15,000 to complete the interior of Central Baptist Church in Krasnodar, Russia. Harold McKinnish suggested that an offering for this cause be taken immediately. Amens were heard all over the building. John McGee led the offertory prayer. The offering amounted to $1,004.00.

Alex Booth suggested that $5,000 be given to the effort by Carolina Baptist Association out of a surplus in the association operation account. Lucy Sitton made a motion that this be done. Guy Smith, pastor of Crab Creek Baptist Church, suggested that the Association give the entire amount; but there was no substitute motion The motion was passed with enthusiasm.

Beverly Smith led the congregation in singing Jesus Saves.

As he introduced W. W. Willingham to bring the Moderator's Message, Alex Booth spoke of his appreciation for a close relationship with Bill and Joy Willingham. He said that he had thought about telling the good things about Joy and then say that her husband would bring the Moderator's message; but that it would take so long to tell all the good things about her that it would make us so late that the Braves would have beaten the Indians (World Series game) before we could get home. He then told about the moderators credentials and service and said that he was one of the best proclaimers of the gospel that he had met in a long time.

Beverly Smith introduced Debbie Moore, minister of music at French Broad Baptist Church for special music. She sang This could be the Day the Lord Returns in Glory and Holy Spirit, Fill This Temple With Your Glory in which the congregation participated.

Moderator Willingham preached on First Corinthians 13:13 centering a powerful message on God's love. He spoke of God's unfailing love reflected in Psalms 51. Then he used Matthew 7:2 (For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.) to show how God's love can be limited in our lives. He used Galatians 5:22 to show that love is a fruit of the Spirit, and First John 4:8, which says that God is love. He concluded with the scene of Jesus entering Jerusalem when he was moved with compassion. He looks upon us with that same compassion.

Beverly Smith led the congregation in singing Because He Lives.

Alex Booth led the installation of new officers.

Moderator Bill Willingham led the dedication prayer and adjourned the meeting.

Respectfully submitted by Clerk Lucy Sitton.

#1 History

Ruby Pruitt

Since 1877 many things have taken place in Carolina Baptist Association. We know only the things that have been preserved for posterity in historical records. The motto Churches in fellowship on mission in their setting is appropriate in the matter of records too, because only people in the churches can provide the historical records.

Each church needs a historian and a history committee to make and preserve written, taped and photographed records.

All written records should be microfilmed with copies kept in different locations to prevent loss or destruction.

Celebrate and publish the church's history annually, and share a copy with the Association.

Keep records of significant events from newspapers, radio and television, and be certain that everything is dated.

Gather information from older members of the church with recorded and written interviews.

Build an archives section in the church library. At least twice each year, get historical material to the Associational Historian Ruby Pruitt at 330 Lyndhurst Drive, Hendersonville, NC 28791-1532, Telephone 693-7908.

There is still time to get material to the Historian for the 1995 Annual which will be published in a few weeks.

West Hendersonville called David Blackwelder as minister of youth, conducted services at Bon Haven Retirement Hotel and began the Team Kids program.

2 Associational Council

Michael Smith

The Associational Council is responsible for making decisions between Carolina Baptist Association meetings. The Council is made up of the Moderator, Vice Moderator, Clerk, Treasurer, Historian and the Council Directors (Mission Ministries, Church Development, Pastors Council and Family Life Council). The members of the Council have been faithful and hard working.

This year the major work has been processing requests for financial aid for mission trips, education, and training through the Neville and Camp Endowment Funds according to the policies approved by the Association. Mission Scholarships were granted for mission trips to Russia, Ecuador, and Ukraine. Education Scholarships were granted for training at Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute, Gardner-Webb University and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary - North Greenville College Extension.

A seminar on the New Age Movement was provided through the Home Mission Board by Dr. Bill Gordon at French Broad Baptist Church.

A significant event this year was the retirement of Hazel M. Duncan after nineteen years of faithful service. In gratitude, the Association granted one year of medical insurance until Hazel qualifies for Medicare.

The Council elected Linda Marie Hyde as secretary for Carolina Baptist Association.

3 Church Development

Michael Smith

Rather than reporting accomplishments, it seem wise to encourage churches to utilize the resources available through the denomination.

The purpose of Carolina Baptist Association is to undergird the work of churches as they cooperate in Kingdom work. There are volunteers with training and experience who want to help churches in the areas of Sunday School, Discipleship Training, Brotherhood, Woman's Missionary Union, Media Library and other areas.

These resource persons do not operate with the mind set that "one program fits all." Each church is distinct and autonomous to follow the Lord's direction in worship and ministry. All denominational resources are available to help at the churches' request.

4 Discipleship Training

Bob Duton

For many churches in Carolina Baptist Association, 1995 can be called the Year of Discipling. Lives are being impacted and churches affected as they experience the powerful presence of our Lord in dynamic ways. When we begin to understand the prayer of Christ - that we would be one with the Father as He is, then we begin to come face-to-face with the reality of a living God.

In Experiencing God: Knowing and Doing the Will of God, Henry Blackaby helps us understand that it is at the point of the cross that God begins to help us recognize His love relationship with us. In the reality of our relationships together as we become involved in discipleship God empowers us to carry on His work in the world around us with authority and responsibility.

Many study courses are available to help a church understand and respond to God's invitation to join Him in His work. The Mind of Christ, by T. W. Hunt, draws us back into a deeper relationship with Christ as we focus on how to think as Christ thought. In God's Presence centers on the development of a meaningful prayer life. Meeting Needs, Sharing Christ offers and in-depth study on biblical and historical basis of the ministry of evangelism and the application of its principles.

These and many other study courses are available to help the church equip disciples the way Jesus did His disciples two thousand years ago. God is working around us, and he wants us to join Him. Let us help all who are hungry for Him to sup at the table.

5 Media Report

Faith Searcy, Director

Ellazene Com, Associate Director

The Media ministry in Carolina Baptist Association is a two-fold ministry: The Carolina Media Library Organization, made up of Church Media Directors and staff, and the Media Resource Center in the Baptist Resource Center.

The Media Library Organization held two training sessions in 1994-95. One with the Transylvania Baptist Association to study Classification & Cataloging of media. The second, Preparing Books for Circulation, was taught at the Resource Center. Two Carolina Media Library Organization officers, Faith Searcy, director, and Hazel Duncan, secretary, attended the State Media Library Conference at Caraway in June. Hazel Duncan and Faith Searcy are Area Representatives for the Baptist State Convention Media Library Department. They are available to associations in the Region 9 Area - Carolina, Transylvania, Haywood, Buncombe, Madison, Yancey and Mitchell - to assist media personnel.

Plans for 1995-96 include two training sessions. Quality Leadership: Media in Teaching and Training will be the topic of the study on April 9, 1996. The book, Evangelism: Touching Lives with Media will be taught November 5, 1996.

Media Organization officers are available, by appointment, to any church who would like to organize or reorganize a Media Library ministry. Call Faith Searcy at 692-1261 to schedule a meeting. A new program NEW START is available for churches who are starting a Media Library for the first time or reorganizing after a long inactive period.

Plans for the Baptist Resource Center include establishing a History, Heritage and Study Area. This area will be dedicated in honor of former historians, Margaret K. King, C.F. Jervis and A.I. Justice. Pictures of these historians and the plaque honoring Margaret K. King will be placed in a prominent place and a placque placed on the door. Other plans include possible expansion of the Media Resource area.

Associational Librarian, Hazel Duncan, is entering all media data in a new Media Library ACS computer program. This program should be in place in the near future and will strengthen the ministry to churches and individuals.

6 Mision Report

Sandy Campbell

It has been a busy year at the Mission.

A new sign has been erected.

Pastor Oviedo spends much time interpreting in court, visiting hospitals, counseling immigrants and helping them with paper work.

There were sixty-eight in Vacation Bible School. They took a trip to the Zoo at Asheboro on Saturday and gave a fine program on Sunday.

Eight people from the Mission attend Sunday School training in Raleigh in June.

The Mission participated in the 1995 Baptist Hispanic Youth Congress in Greensboro. Mision Bautista won a trophy in basket-ball.

Seven Mission members graduated in the GED program at Blue Ridge Community College and two graduated from High School. Angel Cruz and Samuel Vixtha are students at Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute. Six members are scheduled to graduate form the Boyce Bible program.

Junior Church was re-organized in March and now has an average attendance of seventeen.

Angel Cruz took two students from Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute on a mission trip to Mexico in June.

Freddy Ovicdo went with a group to Wisconsin to work in Vacation Bible School.

Alfredo Oviedo did mission work in Russia.

Four teenage boys attended Camp Living Water in Bryson City.

Sherry Jackson, Alejandrina Oviedo and Dan Hutchins are working with choirs at the mission. Rosa Cruz and Lizette Zepeda are taking piano lessons.

The fellowship hall was redecorated.

Church bulletins were begun in April.

The 1996 church budget was prepared.

Average attendance in August was Sunday School - 68, Worship - 93, Thursday - 49.

7 Senior Adults

Doris McGee

On November 2, 1994 the Senior Adults met at Mud Creek Baptist Church with sixty-seven persons from twelve churches attending. The program was Thanksgiving Celebration.

On April 26, 1995, at Balfour Baptist Church there were 77 people from sixteen churches. The program was "Can One Life Make a Difference?"

On August 17, 1995, 110 people from thirteen churches attended the meeting at Hendersonville First Baptist Church. The program was a beautiful slide presentation on The Genesis by Tom Nebbia.

The Senior Adults gave $174 to support Valerie Parham to remain longer in Puerto Rico. The next meeting is scheduled for November 1, 1995 at Fruitland Baptist Church.

8 Family Life Council

Fred Trachsel

The Family Life Council has four vital committees. Each committee is made up of a chairperson and five members. They are dedicated and ready to serve at the call of all churches in the Association.

Because of health problems in her family, Kay Garrison had to resign as chairperson of the Marriage and Family Enrichment Committee. She was devoted to the work, and did it well. Remember the family when you pray.

Sharon Rhodes, of East Flat Rock First Baptist Church, is the new chairperson of the Marriage and Family Enrichment Committee. She is enthusiastic about the work and ready to help. Her telephone number is 692-7659.

Judy Sinyard (692-9276) serves faithfully as chairperson of the Singles Enrichment Committee. The Singles Ministry, a powerful entity, meets every Saturday at 6:30 P.M. in the Baptist Resource Center Assembly room.

Mark Hunnicutt (697-9808) is the dedicated chairperson of the Youth Enrichment Committee. The committee works with young people in the home, school and church.

Doris McGee (685-8343) serves as the faithful and energetic chairperson of the Senior Adult Enrichment Committee. She arranges fine programs for association-wide Senior Adult meeting in November, April and August each year. She also keeps everyone aware of special denominational activities for adults.

9 Youth Enrichment

Mark Hunnicutt

It has been an incredible year. The Lord is moving among young people in the Carolina Baptist Association Churches. The Wednesday Nite Live youth rallies held in June, July and August, were great.

Many decisions were made for Christ during the Fall Lock-In. Youth in the churches participated in several mission trips.

The following will serve on the committee in 1996, and they are ready to help any church in youth work: Mark Hunnicutt, Adam Bright, Tim Turner, Jason Davis, Marianna Dockery and Darrin Waldroup.

#10 Singles Enrichment

Judy Sinyard

During 1995, the Singles Ministry included:

Ministry Seven - Packed personal health kits for men, women and children. The kits for children included coloring books, crayons and toys.

Weekly Fellowship - Programs on various topics each Saturday night with speakers from Interfaith Assistance Ministry, Ministry Seven, and Mainstay. Covered dish meals promoted fellowship. There were games and sing-a-longs. The group visited the Buncombe Singles Ministry for the Reason musical concert. There was a Saturday outing with a picnic.

The Singles Ministry encourages all singles to be active in their churches.

#11 Marriage and Family

Sharon Rhodes

Marriage and Family Enrichment need constant attention. Statistics on broken homes tells us that much work is needed in this area. When children come along, they have special needs in each stage from infancy through the teenage years.

Family worship is essential because homes are bombarded with a myriad of secular influences that compete for personal loyalties. Divorce creates a serious need for Christian support groups. The blending of two families in a remarriage needs a lot of patience, understanding and prayer. Trusting God and prayer are vital ingredients for every family.

The Marriage and Family Enrichment Committee stands ready to help any church minister to families.

#12 W.M.U.

Grace Henderon

November 6, 1994 Baptist World Day of Prayer was held at Etowah Baptist Church.

November and December completed the Powder Project (powder for women in prison).

December 9, 1994: Completed the Toy Project (toys and a witness for needy families)

December: Baked cookies (women and girls) for the Blue Ridge Prison Ministry.

February: Provided a banquet at Hendersonville First Baptist Church to honor pastors and their wives.

March 31 - April 2: Four Officers attended the State W.M.U. meeting at Ridgecrest.

April 7-8: Prayer Retreat at Shaws Creek Baptist Church.

April 25: Annual Spring Meeting at Mills River Baptist Church.

May 1: Annual W.M.U. meeting at Shaws Creek Baptist Church. Frances Hefner was elected as W.M.U. Director.

May 8-9: Key Leadership at Ridgecrest.

June: SBC Annual Meeting in Atlanta.

July: Ten leaders participated in the Training Workshop at Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute.

August 29: Officers Training at Refuge Baptist Church with 76 attending.

#13 Retirement Homes

John Rymer

Luther Osment, widely known for his work with the Baptist Children's Homes, has been called as chaplain for the North Carolina Baptist Retirement Homes. He will work primarily with the Richmond Hill facility in Asheville and the Brookridge unit in Winston-Salem.

Renovations to the Taylor House facility in Albermarle and to the Hamilton Home in Martin County will make all the facilities operated by the Baptist Retirement Homes "state-of-the-art" by the end of 1995. Dr. Stillerman and his staff are doing a good work.

The Young Solarium addition to the Richmond Hill facility in Asheville will be completed in 1995. It is named for Cecil and Girtrue Young, members of Etowah Baptist Church. They have served the Lord through Carolina Baptist Association and the North Carolina Baptist State Convention.

Thanks for helping the Baptist Retirement Homes make life for older adults ...the best of times!

#14 Childrens Homes

Janette Ward

Children are the future church. The way a child is brought up usually shapes its character. Baptist Childrens Home may take a child from a bad environment and bring them up in the nurture of the Lord to become Christian leaders of tomorrow.

Most of these children are not orphans; but from broken malfunctioning homes.

The Asheville Maternity Home takes unwed mothers and ministers to them until after the baby is born. They try to lead them to Christ and help them make the right decisions. Abortion is never the answer there.

Camp Cameron specializes in ministering to boys who seem to be headed toward a life of crime and might end up in reform schools. The program is based on tough love with strong discipline and hard work. Most of them are led to the Lord and become productive citizens.

Moody Home near Franklin ministers to girls much as Camp Cameron minister to boys.

The other homes are similar to Broyhill near Waynesville, which attempts to provide as normal a family situation as possible. Financial support for Baptist Children Homes may mean many Christian leaders for the future.

Margaret Lefers

In 1994, 534 new missionaries were appointed by the Foreign Mission Board. This was the highest number of new missionaries in seven years.

The Lottie Moon Christmas Offering reached 99% of the goal, a record offering of three million over the year before. Churches in Carolina Baptist Association gave $137,186.

New harvest fields have opened in Cambodia, Haiti, Romania and Bulgaria. A Baptist Seminary and Conference Center has opened in Poland. The work in Africa continues to grow. Nigeria was near the top in number of baptisms for 1994. Missionaries are back in Rwanda. In Zimbabwe, six dams have been repaired to provide clean water for some 20,000 people. Victims of political and economical troubles are being ministered to in East Africa and Mexico. Hunger relief has gone to Asia and Brazil.

Southern Baptists are following the stated visions of the Foreign Mission Board, "We will lead Southern Baptists to be on mission with God to bring all peoples of the world to saving faith in Christ."

16 Cooperative Program

W. W. Willingham

Most Southern Baptists have heard the words Cooperative Program. They appear often in print, and they come up in business meetings. Many pastors and missionaries use them in sermons and conversations.

The Cooperative Program is a financial miracle. It is a unique method whereby a single dollars gift can help minister through more than six thousand missionaries in one hundred six countries. It is the plan through which Southern Baptists work together in witnessing, teaching, healing and preaching throughout the world. It is a partnership between churches, state conventions and the Southern Baptist Convention.

The individual Baptists tithes and offerings are given in the local church. According to the church budget, part of the income goes for the local church ministries and a part of the income is budgeted for the Cooperative Program which goes to the State Convention. Part of that goes to Baptist State Missions. Part of the Cooperative Program income at the State Convention is budgeted for State Mission Causes and the rest goes through the Southern Baptist Convention office in Nashville, Tennessee (unless the churches designate an optional use of its Cooperative Program funds). From there all funds are distributed according the a budget adopted by messengers at the annual meeting.

The churches, the State Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention each give a regular financial report on how the money is spent. Who receives Cooperative Program Funds? The list is long. It would be hard to find a Southern Baptist worker anywhere who has not been helped by the Cooperative Program.

Our denomination is not the only one God has operating in the world; we just have the best method of carrying out the Great Commission - the Cooperative Program.

#19 Director of Missions

Alex Booth

In addition to visiting all the churches, enjoying constant fellowship at the Monday Ministers Meetings and supplying in churches as invited, Zeke Crawford and Alex Booth enjoy working with the elected staff and volunteers in every opportunity to support and encourage churches in Carolina Baptist Association. The office staff and volunteers are here for the purpose of helping the churches do what the Lord is leading them to do..

Perhaps the most encouraging thing right now is that pastors and church leaders want to work with other churches instead of compete with them. Our churches really want to help each other do God's will.

The new thing for Carolina Baptist Association is the availability of money for mission work through the churches. Missions endowment income from funds invested with the North Carolina Baptist Foundation provides between twelve and twenty thousand dollars each year for churches to use for missions education and missions action. None of these fund can be used for associational operations or programs.

Information on the availability of funds and guidelines are published in the Newsletter, and every

The denomination is using the title Assist Team for people who are trained and willing to help churches do whatever the Lord is leading them to do.

Carolina Baptist Association seeks:
No Control.
No Ownership
No Influence Over a Church
No Agenda of It's Own.

One picture of the work of the Holy Spirit in John, chapter sixteen, is that of a comforter (KJV). The Greek word describes one who comes along side to help a fallen soldier in battle. It is the Holy Spirit that leads people in Carolina Baptist Association to come along side of sister churches to help.God does not have to speak through a denomination, association, a church or a pastor. He deals directly with his people.

All the people in all the churches in the Association can come to the aid of any church who needs help. That is what Carolina Baptist Association is about.

CONSTITUTION
Carolina Baptist Association

Preamble:
We, the messengers of cooperating Baptist churches in Henderson, and parts of Buncombe and Polk Counties, North Carolina, propose to establish and maintain the principles of a district association consistent with this constitution.

Article I - NAME
The name of this body shall be "Carolina Baptist Association, Inc."

Article II - PURPOSE
To aid churches in their obedience to the Great Commission, and, seeking direction from the unchanging God in a constantly changing world, it shall be the purpose of Carolina Baptist Association, Inc. to help churches cooperate with koinonia in missions, evangelism and growth projects they cannot do alone. The Association shall be a resource center for training and equipping church workers to be more effective in performing their duties. The Association shall encourage cooperation in the denomination for the advancement of God's Kingdom.

Article III - MEMBERSHIP
Section 1. Carolina Baptist Association, Inc. shall be composed of messengers from cooperating member churches.

Section 2. The Association shall be sole judge of its membership and may receive churches, or reject churches according to its Constitution and By-Laws.

Section 3. Churches who want to join the Association may apply to the Membership Committee. Upon the committee's recommendation to the Association, a church may be received under watch-care for a period of one year during which the church shall have all the rights and privileges of membership except that members may not vote nor hold office. After a satisfactory relationship for one year, the church can be received into full membership.

Section 4. A church may withdraw from the Association by transfer of letter to another association or by an official request to have that church removed from the membership role.

Article IV - MEETINGS
Section 1. Carolina Baptist Association, Inc. shall meet regularly on the fourth Tuesday evening in April from 7:00 through 9:00 P.M., at which meeting general officers shall be elected, and on the fourth Tuesday in October, from 4:00 P.M. through 9:00 P.M. each year.

Section 2. Special meetings may be called for specified purposes by the Moderator or the Associational Council provided that two weeks notice is given to member churches.

Section 3. Messengers shall be elected annually by each member church. In addition to the pastor, one messenger for each fifty (50) members of the church may be elected provided that no church shall have less than three (3) nor more than ten (10) messengers. The names of messengers who attend and register during the annual associational meeting shall be listed in the minutes.

Article V - AUTHORITY
Each church is autonomous. A church does not instruct its messengers how to vote, and no church is under the authority of the Association in any way. All relationships are cooperative.

Article VI - OFFICERS
Section 1. The general officers of Carolina Baptist Association shall be a moderator, vice moderator, clerk, treasurer and historian.

Section 2. General officers shall be elected at the spring meetings by a majority vote for candidates presented by the nominating committee or from the floor. All nominations must be with the prior consent of the nominee. They shall serve for one year beginning at the close of the fall meeting and ending at the close of the next fall meeting.

Section 3. (a) A parliamentarian shall be appointed by the moderator to serve during his term of office.

(b) If the office of moderator becomes vacant, the vice moderator shall become moderator for the remainder of that term. Other vacancies in associational offices shall be filled by the Association on recommendation by the nominating committee or from the floor, with the prior consent of the nominee.

(c) A moderator shall not serve more than two terms in succession.

Section 4. The major divisions of work; Missions, Church Programs, Administration, Pastoral Emphases, Family Life and others, as determined by the Association, shall be coordinated by councils. Each council chair shall be nominated by the nominating committee or from the floor, with the prior consent of the nominees, to a term of one year from January through December.

Section 5. (a) A program director shall be elected in April, for Sunday School, Discipleship Training, WMU, Brotherhood, Music, Youth, Senior Adults, Single Adults, Seminary Extension, Church Media, VBS and other organizations which may be added by the Association. Nominations may be presented by the nominating committee or from the floor with the prior consent of each nominee, for terms of three (3) years, beginning January 1 after election, Vacancies may be filled in like manner.

(b)The Program Directors will serve three-year terms beginning in January following election, but they will be responsible for planning the program and budget for each of the years under their direction.

(c) Each Director will select workers for that area and present them to the Association for approval.

Article VII - TRUSTEES
Three trustees shall be elected to single rotating terms of three years. It is suggested that one of the three be a lawyer. Nominations may come from the nominating committee or from the floor with the prior consent of each nominee. The expiration date of each trustee's term of office shall appear by his name in the Associational Minutes.

Article VIII - BOARD OF DIRECTORS
Carolina Baptist Association, Inc. shall function as a corporation. The Director of Missions shall serve as president of the board composed of the trustees and the treasurer. The treasurer shall serve as secretary of the board.

Article IX - EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE
The Carolina Baptist Association Executive Committee shall be composed of the associational officers, Director of Missions (ex-officio), chairs of all standing committees and the persons holding or representing the following positions in each member church: pastor, Sunday School director, Discipleship Training director, WMU director, Brotherhood director, Music director, Youth director, Senior Adult director, Single Adult director and chair of deacons. The Executive Committee shall have the authority to act for the Association between session as limited by the Constitution and By-laws. It shall meet regularly in January and July. A quorum shall consist of those present at regular meetings and called meetings with two weeks notice to all member churches.

Article X - ASSOCIATIONAL COUNCIL
The Associational Council shall consist of the moderator, vice moderator, clerk, treasurer, chair of each council, and the associational staff members (ex-officio). The Associational Council shall function in an advisory capacity for planning, promoting, correlating and reviewing the total associational program. The Council sub-committee, consisting of the Moderator, Vice Moderator, Clerk and Treasurer, shall serve as a standing personnel committee. The Council shall meet prior to each meeting of the Association.

Article XI - COMMITTEES

Section 1 - Standing Committees Members of all standing committees shall be elected from nominees by the Committee on Committees or from the floor, with the prior consent of each nominee, to rotating terms of three (3) years beginning in January after election. The standing committees shall be: Auditing, Constitution, Evangelism, Family Enrichment, Finance, Language Ministries, Membership, Migrants, New Work, Nominating, Order of Business, Ordination, and Pastor/Church Relations.

Section 2. The following committees shall be appointed by the Moderator at least thirty days before the annual meeting: Committee on Committees, Committee on Enrolment, Committee on Resolutions and Committee on Place and Preacher

Article XII - AMENDMENTS

Amendments to the constitution may be made at any regular annual meeting. The amendment must be presented by distribution in printed form during the first session, reviewed by the Constitution Committee and voted upon the next session. Two thirds of the messengers present and voting , by standing, shall be required.
